

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTED PAPERS FOR NABE 2020 ANNUAL MEETING

The Edmund A. Mennis Contributed Papers Award $1,000 Prize for Best Paper

Review Procedure

NABE Members are encouraged to participate actively in the NABE Annual Meeting in Chicago, Illinois, on October 3-6, 2020. How? By submitting a paper for the NABE Edmund A. Mennis Contributed Papers Award. Here are the details.

1. E-mail an abstract of no more than 250 words (one page, double-spaced) of a proposed paper (with no author identification) and a separate page with affiliation and contact information no later than May 15, 2020, to Michele Soresi at msoresi@nabe.com. Topics should reflect original, unpublished research by the author(s) on topics or in areas that would be of practical value to NABE Members in fulfilling their job responsibilities.
2. By May 29, a Selection Committee appointed by the Business Economics Editor will review the anonymous abstracts. Up to eight abstracts will be selected. The authors will be requested to provide completed papers for review by August 7. The guidelines for preparation will be the same as those for all manuscripts submitted to Business Economics. These guidelines are printed in Business Economics, and they are also available on the Palgrave Macmillan site or on request from Charles Steindel, Editor of Business Economics, at csteindel@nabe.com.
3. From these final papers, the Selection Committee will select two for presentation at a session of the NABE Annual Meeting. Winners will be notified by September 11, 2020.
4. The following awards will be made to the authors of the two selected papers:
  - a. The author(s) of the best paper will receive the NABE Edmund A. Mennis Contributed Paper Award, a prize of $1,000, a commemorative plaque, and complimentary attendance for one author to the NABE Annual Meeting. The paper (as modified by the author(s) if desired) will be published in a future issue of Business Economics.
  - b. The author(s) of the second paper will receive the NABE Contributed Paper Award, a commemorative plaque, and complimentary attendance for one author to the NABE Annual Meeting. The paper (as modified by the author(s) if desired) will be published in a future issue of Business Economics.
  - c. The remaining papers will be reviewed for publication in future issues of Business Economics.
5. In fairness to all prospective authors, you are requested to adhere strictly to the deadlines and other instructions listed above. If you have questions, please contact Michele Soresi at msoresi@nabe.com.
