NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR BUSINESS ECONOMICS ANNOUNCES 2022-23 CLASS OF NABE SCHOLARS

Twenty Early-Career Economists and Economics Students Will Receive Complimentary NABE Membership and Attendance at Four Annual NABE Conferences, and Attendance at CBE Course of Their Choice

The NABE Foundation, the charitable arm of the National Association for Business Economics (NABE), has announced the 2022-23 Class of NABE Scholars. The scholarships, which are awarded annually to 20 early-career economists and economics students from underrepresented groups, are a continuing effort to expand opportunities for economics students and early-career economists from diverse backgrounds.

“We are honored to be able to contribute to the development of these 20 gifted young people as they embark on their careers in business and economics,” said NABE Foundation Chair LaVaughn M. Henry, CBE, PhD. “Thanks to the generosity of the NABE Scholars Circle of Benefactors, program benefits have been expanded significantly in 2022 to include complimentary registration to four NABE events: the 2022 NABE Foundation Economic Measurement Seminar (July 18-19, Washington, DC); the 2022 NABE Annual Meeting (October 8-11, Chicago, IL); the 2022 NABE Tech Economics Conference (November 6-8, Seattle, WA); and the 2023 NABE Economic Policy Conference (dates TBD, Washington, DC). The Foundation will also send each scholar to the Certified Business Economist ® (CBE) course of their choice and will provide a stipend to each scholar to offset travel costs. Just as we have already seen from the past classes of NABE Scholars, we fully expect wonderful things to come from the 2022-23 Class, and NABE is proud to have a hand in their future success.”
