Trinity Episcopal Church

November 15, 2026: Twenty Fifth Sunday after Pentecost - 10am Choral Eucharist

Welcome to Our Parish

We are glad to have you with us for our worship today, to share in the inclusive, ever-abundant love of God. If you would like to learn more about life here at Trinity, please fill out a Welcome Card found in the pew racks in front of you; join us for refreshments after the service; and visit our website at trinitysb.org.

For an explanation of why worship at Trinity looks and sounds like it does, scan the QR code for our Guide to the Episcopal Liturgy.

Open Communion. Whatever tradition you come from, and wherever you are on your journey of faith, you are welcome at our communion table. You will find simple directions on how to participate in the Holy Communion section of the program. Gluten-free wafers are available—just ask when the bread is presented to you.

Prayer Ministers. During communion at the 10am service, two prayer minsters are available at the back of the church to pray. The three of you will pray together in a circle and you will be offered anointing with oil.

Children. On Sundays, Trinity offers religious formation for our children (ages 3 1/2 to 12) through the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program. It takes place as early as 9am in the church school building behind the sanctuary. Children are brought into the church during the offertory hymn to join us for communion at the 10am service.

Nursery and Toddler Care is from 9:00am to the end of the 10am service on Sundays in the nursery upstairs. During the offertory hymn, you are welcome to gather your child from the nursery to join you for communion in the church.

Trinity's Youth Group (grades 7-12) meets weekly during the school year for fellowship and reflection.

Our ushers are always glad to be of assistance, including answering questions, providing hearing loops as needed, and giving directions to the church school building, the nursery, and other on-site facilities.

Hearing Loop installed in the sanctuary.

Ordinary Time

For years, when my child was little, long trips in the car meant enjoying the treat of listening to books-on-tape. Among our favorites were the Winnie-the-Pooh books, read by the gravelly-voiced Charles Kuralt. Through simple, everyday stories about the lives of Pooh and Piglet, Owl and Tigger, and all the other residents of the Hundred Acre Wood, we came to know their values and how they cared for each other. The stories explored what it meant to be a friend and a neighbor; what it felt like to be excluded or included; the reparative cycle from hurt to forgiveness, from Isolation to reconciliation .

While I love the high drama and excitement of the "big" seasons and celebrations of the church year—Advent and Christmas, Lent and Holy Week, Easter and Ascension and Pentecost—there's so much to appreciate about the long unfolding season of the weeks between Pentecost and Advent, what in 'church-speak' we call Ordinary Time. In this season, we hear stories of Jesus' day-to-day work and ministry in the scriptures, learning through narrative and parable what it means to be a neighbor, to be included, to be healed and forgiven and reconciled.

Our challenge in this Ordinary Time is to not take the everyday-ness of the stories of Jesus encountering and loving humanity for granted, but appreciate the rich gifts of the quotidian. I'm reminded of Mary Oliver's poem of wise counsel, especially apt this season: Instructions for living a life…

Pay attention.
Be astonished.
Tell about it.

Processional Hymn #290 Come, ye thankful people come

Opening Acclamation

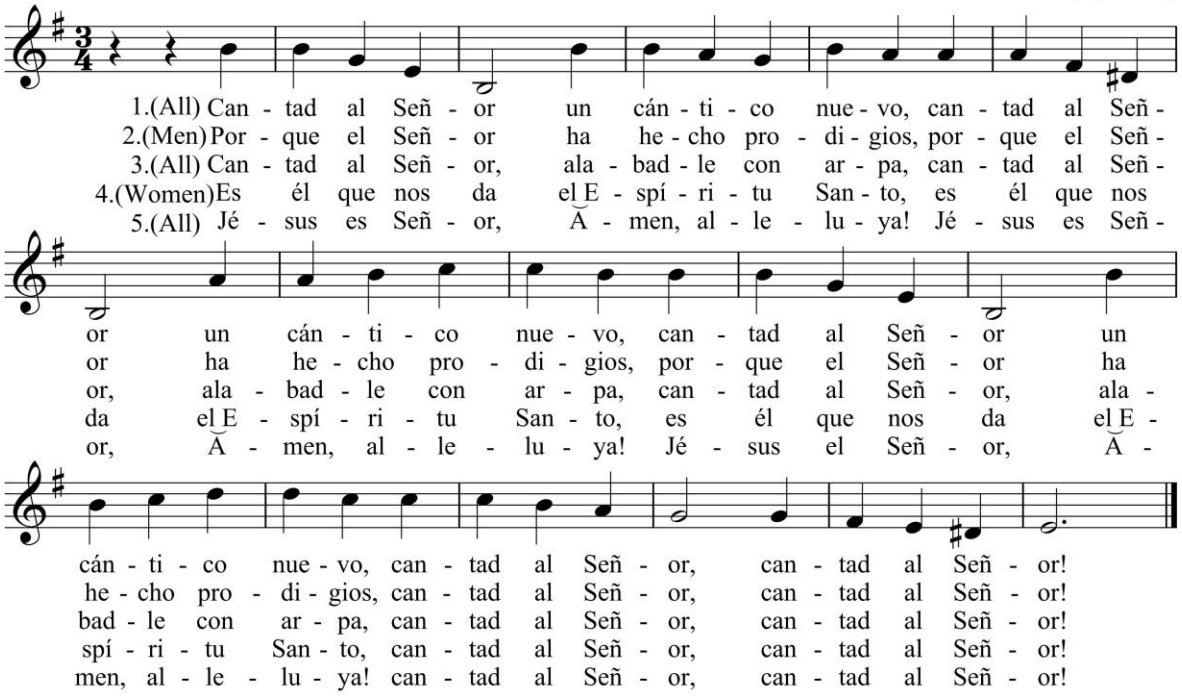

Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
People Glory to God for ever and ever.

Collect for Purity All pray together

Loving God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Hymn of Praise All are invited to sing

Cantad al Señor - Oh, Sing to the Lord
Brazilian Folk Song (based on Psalm 98)
Arr. Robert A. Hobby (b.1962)

English Translation:

Oh, sing to the Lord, Oh sing to God a new song...
For God is the Lord, and God has done wonders...
Oh, sing to the Lord, praise God with the harp...
God is the one who gives us the Holy Spirit...
For Jesus is Lord, Amen, Alleluia!...

Collect of the Day adapted from Feasting on the Word

Presider God be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray. Shine your light on us, O God; by your Spirit let us see your wonder. For your justice outruns our sense of fairness; your love overwhelms our deepest affections. Open our eyes, unstop our ears, and show us your way; through Jesus we pray, Amen.

Please be seated.

First Lesson Judges 4:1-7

The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died. So the LORD sold them into the hand of King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-ha-goiim. Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and had oppressed the Israelites cruelly twenty years.

At that time Deborah, a prophetess, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel. She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites came up to her for judgment. She sent and summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you, 'Go, take position at Mount Tabor, bringing ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun. I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin's army, to meet you by the Wadi Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.'"

Psalm 123 All are invited to sing the REFRAIN

From The Portland Psalter © 2002, by Robert A. Hawthorne
Church Publishing Incorporated. All rights reserved.

REFRAIN

To you I lift up my eyes, *
to you enthroned in the heavens.

As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, *
and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,

So our eyes look to you, O Lord our God, *
until you show us your mercy.

REFRAIN

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy, *
for we have had more than enough of contempt,

Too much of the scorn of the indolent rich, *
and of the derision of the proud.

REFRAIN

Second Lesson 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation All are invited to sing

Gospel Acclamation
(Aclamación antes del Evangelio)
James J. Chepponis (1956-2026)

The Holy Gospel Matthew 25:14-30

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus said, "It is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

Sermon The Rev. John Draper

[Allow for a few moments of silence]

All who are able, please stand.

Affirmation of Faith Sister Joan Chittister, OSB

We believe in God who made us all,
and whose divinity infuses life with the sacred.
We believe in the multiple revelations of God,
alive in every human heart, expressed in every culture,
found in all the wisdoms of the world.

We believe in Jesus, the Christ, who leads us to the fullness of humanity, to what we are meant to become.
Through Christ, we become new people,
called beyond the consequences of our brokenness,
lifted to the fullness of life.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath of God on earth, who keeps the Christ vision present to souls yet in darkness, gives light to hearts now blind, infuses energy into spirits yet weary, isolated, searching and confused.

We believe in God who is life. Amen.

Prayers of the People adapted from White & Graves, Hear Our Prayer

Holy God, be among us, hear us, and fulfill the hope of our prayers as we say, God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Bestow your grace upon your church and lend us your strength so that we might boldly proclaim and live out the good news of Jesus Christ. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Shower wisdom on those who hold authority in our lives, that they might seek to lead through service to the greatest good. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Embolden us to be the body of Christ in our local community, that our presence might be a pledge of our commitment to love our neighbors. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Arouse in us the desire to protect and sustain your abundant creation, that our world may remain a place of wonder and sustenance for future generations. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Bring your healing power to bear in the lives of all who endure illness or injury, that they may know peace, and rouse us to be people of care and reconciliation. We pray for those on our parish prayer list and for those we name aloud or silently.

[Pause to offer names.]

God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Take into your loving arms all those who have died that they might grow in love and devotion to you, and bring us once again into the presence of those we have loved in your eternal kingdom.

[Pause to offer names.]

God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

The Presider adds a concluding Collect:

Blessed God, you have longed for the turning of every human heart and have shown us in word and deed the path of promise that leads to you. Hear and answer our prayers, that we might see more fully your realm, and so that your glory might be reflected and magnified throughout the world. Amen.

Confession

Deacon We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins:
People God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,

the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf;
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.
People And also with you.

Please be seated.

Offertory Anthem A Time for All Things — Scottish tune, Candler
arr. Douglas Wagner (b. 1952)

To everything there is a season, there is a time for all good things.

A time to plant and a time to reap, a time to lose, a time to keep;
a time to weep, a time to laugh, a time to mourn, a time to dance.
A time to follow, a time to lead, a time to speak and a time to heed;
a time to sleep, a time to wake, a time to give and a time to take.

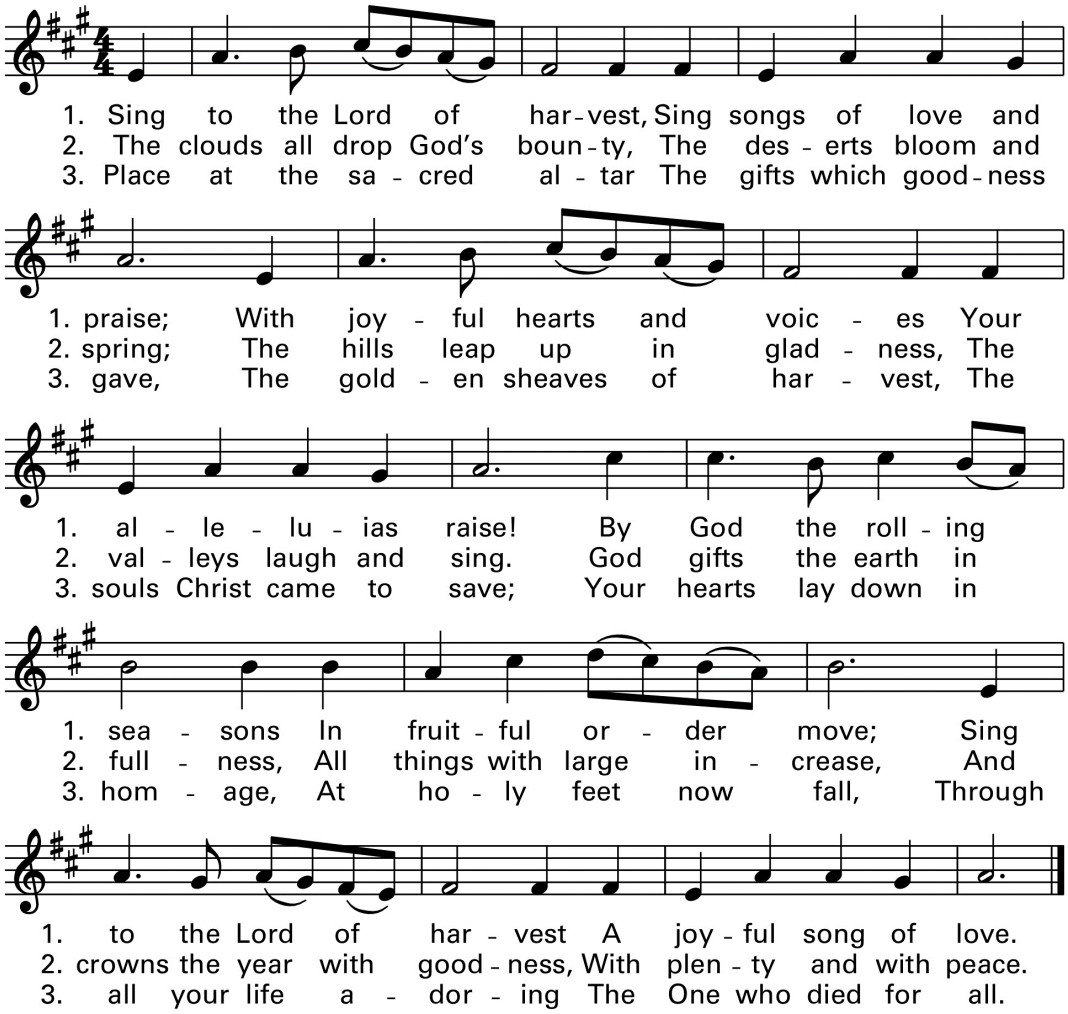

For all the blessings of our God are given us that we might have a time to live and a time to share, a time to love and a time to care.

To everything there is a season, there is a time for all good things.

-Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

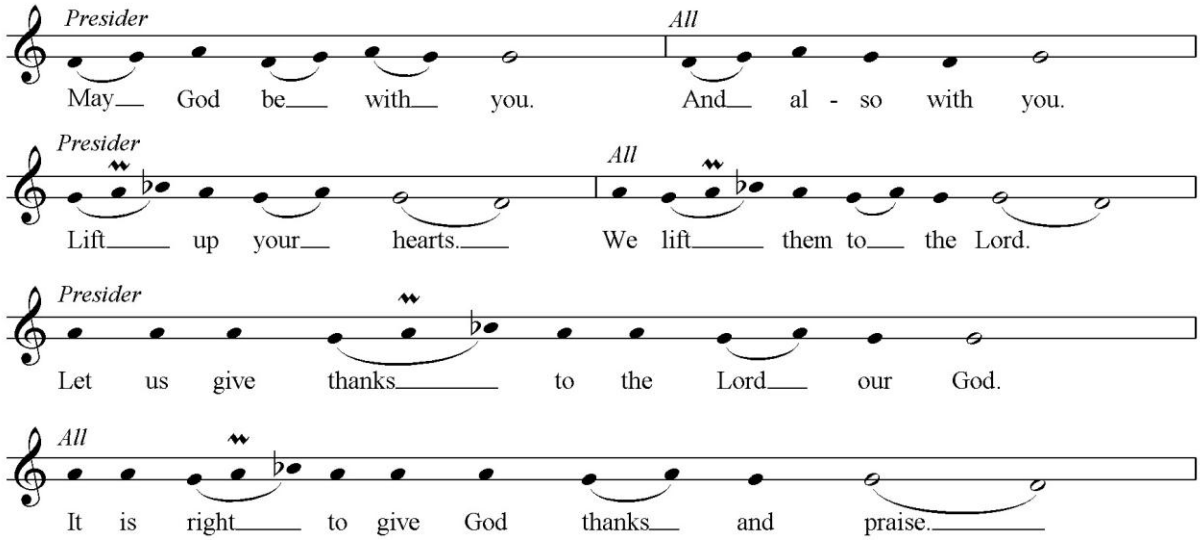

Entrance of the Children into the Sanctuary

Offertory Hymn Sing to the Lord of harvest

Text: 76 76 D; John S.B. Monsell, 1811–1875, alt. Music: Johann Steuerlein, 1546–1613.

The Great Thanksgiving Enriching our Worship

Presider We lift our hearts and give our thanks and praise to you, God of our ancestors: because you brought order out of chaos, you called a people to be your own, and in Moses you saw the misery of your people and heard their cries. In Elijah and the prophets, you pleaded with your people to be true to their identity as your chosen ones, and finally, in Jesus, you came to be with us, to deliver us from sin and death and oppression, through the liberation of the cross and the glory of the resurrection. And so we gladly thank you, joining with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, to sing the hymn of your unending praise:

Sanctus All are invited to sing

Sanctus/Benedictus
William Loperena (1935-1996)
Puerto Rico

English Translation:
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Presider We thank and praise you, O God, because in the power of your Holy Spirit you give us everything we need to follow you—gifts of prophecy, ministry, exhortation, generosity, leadership, and compassion. Send down your Holy Spirit upon us now, that we may not be conformed to the world, but transformed by your renewing grace. Give us your very self in these gifts of bread and wine, and make them for us the body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ, who, at supper with his disciples, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup. Again he gave you thanks, and gave it to his disciples saying, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." Great is the mystery of faith.

People Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Presider God of deliverance, you open up the gift of your scripture to reveal who you are, and who and whose we are. Through the gift of your holy communion, bring your whole creation into the form of your likeness. Have mercy on all who are oppressed; be close to all who live under hostile conditions and regimes; and hear the cries of all whose children are in danger. Send upon us, your people, the gift of wisdom, that we may know and follow the paths that lead to peace, grace, and truth. Build up in rulers and leaders the virtues of discernment and mercy. Show your face to those who ache for compassion, and hasten the coming of your righteous and just future. We pray in union with Christ, in the power of your Holy Spirit, God of glory, forever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

And now let us pray together, in the words Jesus gave his disciples:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction Anthem All are invited to sing

Agnus Dei
Victor Eduardo Jortack (b.1953)
Argentina

English Translation:

O Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; grant us your peace.

The Invitation

Presider These are the gifts of God for you the holy and beloved people of God.

The Holy Communion

Whoever you are, and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith, you are welcome at God's table for communion. Please come forward to receive communion standing in a semi-circle around the altar. You have the option to receive only the bread, or the bread intincted (dipped) into the wine and placed into your hand by the clergy person distributing communion. If you wish to receive only the bread, please say "bread only" as it's your turn to receive. Gluten free wafers are also available.

Regardless of whether you're receiving the bread only, or the bread and wine, you will hear the phrases, "the body of Christ, the bread of heaven" and "the blood of Christ, the cup of salvation" as communion is offered to you. As the ushers invite your row forward, please come up the center aisle to receive communion, then return to your seat via the side aisle. If you're unable to leave the pew, please notify an usher and communion will be brought to you. If you do not wish to receive communion, simply cross your arms across your chest; this will signal to the clergy to offer a blessing in lieu of communion.

Communion Anthem Ubi Caritas Ola Gjeilo (b.1978)

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.
Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.
Exultemus, et in ipso iucundemur.
Timeamus, et amemus Deum vivum.
Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero. Amen

Where charity and love are, God is there.
Christ's love has gathered us into one.
Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him.
Let us fear, and let us love the living God.
And may we love each other with a sincere heart. Amen.

Music at Communion Andante con moto Alexandre Boëly (1785–1858)

All who are able, please stand.

Post Communion Prayer adapted from Steven Shakespeare

May we who have fed at Wisdom's table take her out to where tables are restricted and doors are closed. May the Spirit drive us to break bread on the altar of the world. Amen.

Commendation of Eucharistic Visitors

Presider Beloved community, we send our eucharistic visitors to share this Holy Communion with those who could not worship here today.
People May they carry the prayers of all of us as they take the sacrament of the presence of Christ.

Final Blessing adapted from St. Clare of Assisi

Be careful as you go out into God's creation, for it does not belong to you. Be gentle with yourself and with one another, for you are the dwelling place of God. Be alert, for sometimes God is but a whisper. And the blessing of God who made you, who loves you, and who travels with you, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

At Coffee Hour after the 8am and 10am services, help pack Care Kits for our neighbors most in need. Financial donations are welcome to cover the costs of the items.

Choral Evensong – Sunday, November 22, 5-6pm (see flyer)

Advent Wreath Making – Sunday, November 29, after both services, Guild Hall (see flyer)

Ornament Exchange Party – Friday, December 4, 6-8pm, Guild Hall
Bring a wrapped Christmas Tree Ornament—one for each person attending—along with yourself and some food/beverage to share. Join us for this fun and festive tradition!

Trinity Backstage Holiday Show – Saturday, December 5, 3-5pm, Labyrinth
Join musicians Douglas Clegg, Kate Wallace, James McVay and special guests for an afternoon of great music, delectables, cider, and tea. Suggested donations of $20 may be made at the door.

Alternative Christmas Market - Sunday, December 6, after both services, Parish Hall
Trinity parishioners and friends have an opportunity to justice shop, funding a wide variety of local and international charitable organizations. The church school children and youth group members put their faith into action. Stop by to see what they've been working on and support the next generation as they lead the charge for a better world.

Compline with Story & Sound - Sunday, December 6, 7-8pm
Join us for an evening of meditative music and storytelling in the Trinity Sanctuary with incense, tea, blankets, and candlelight. Pauline Nelson returns as our December storyteller.

Trinity Men's Group - Monday, December 7, 4-5pm
The Men's Group meets on the first Monday of each month in the Trinity library. After the meeting, anyone who finds it convenient is welcome to gather at Santa Barbara Public Market to share a meal.

Blue Christmas Service - Tuesday, December 8, 6-7pm
A contemplative service of prayer, ritual, meditation, and music to provide healing space for those who experience the Christmas season as a difficult one due to loss, grief, or loneliness, and for those who love and support them.

Christmas Cookie Walk and Gift Basket Raffle – Sunday, December 13
Make plans to attend this festive community-wide fundraising event and purchase homemade cookies, enter the gift basket raffle, and enjoy holiday music by the San Marcos HS choir.
