

Trinity Episcopal Church

December 14, 2025: The Third Sunday of Advent - 10am Choral Eucharist

Welcome to Our Parish

We are glad to have you with us for our worship today, to share in the inclusive, ever-abundant love of God. If you would like to learn more about life here at Trinity, please fill out a Welcome Card found in the pew racks in front of you; join us for refreshments after the service; and visit our website at trinitysb.org.

For an explanation of why worship at Trinity looks and sounds like it does, scan the QR code for our Guide to the Episcopal Liturgy.

Open Communion. Whatever tradition you come from, and wherever you are on your journey of faith, you are welcome at our communion table. You will find simple directions on how to participate in the Holy Communion section of the program. Gluten-free wafers are available—just ask when the bread is presented to you.

Prayer Ministers. During communion at the 10am service, two prayer ministers are available at the back of the church to pray. The three of you will pray together in a circle and you will be offered anointing with oil.

Children. On Sundays, Trinity offers religious formation for our children (ages 3 to 12) through the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program. It takes place as early as 9am in the church school building behind the sanctuary. Children are brought into the church during the offertory hymn to join us for communion at the 10am service.

Nursery and Toddler Care is from 9:45am to the end of the 10am service on Sundays in the nursery upstairs. During the offertory hymn, you are welcome to gather your child from the nursery to join you for communion in the church.

Trinity's Youth Group (grades 7-12) meets weekly during the school year for fellowship and reflection.

Our ushers are always glad to be of assistance, including answering questions, providing hearing loops as needed, and giving directions to the church school building, the nursery, and other on-site facilities.

Hearing Loop installed in the sanctuary.

An Advent Blessing

God, we long for peace,
but we have already drawn our blades.
We are at war with each other,
and within ourselves.

Our world—the evidence of our folly—on full display.
We waste away in quarries dug by our own hands.

Oh, Jesus, come to us.
Come suddenly, into the center of our deepest need.
Come swiftly into the chaos of our conflict and distress.

Establish the peaceful order of your rule, not ours.
Your kingdom, not ours.
Reign with sovereignty in our hearts,
which refuse correction.
Reign with power over all that is ungovernable.
Reign with mercy over our communities, our neighborhoods, and our nation.

Blessed are we who look to you, Jesus, to be the change we cannot enact.
Come, prince of peace, to our bleeding world.

The Lighting of the Advent Wreath

For the third Sunday of Advent—Joy

The poet, Mary Oliver, wrote:
*"If you suddenly and unexpectedly feel joy, don't hesitate.
 Give in to it . . . life has some possibility left . . .
 Joy is not made to be a crumb."*

It seemed impossible, but the Israelites returned to their home from exile in Babylon. The prophet Isaiah offered a song of celebration. Come and rejoice! Eat and drink! Get your priorities in order! Can't you see that God is close by? The people rejoiced, amazed to have a second chance.

The end of the story has yet to be written.
 When we light the candle of Joy, we celebrate the One who has come, is coming and will come again.

Collect of the Day	adapted from All Desires Known
---------------------------	---------------------------------------

Presider	God be with you.
People	And also with you.
Presider	Let us pray. O, God whose word is fruitless where the mighty are not put down, the humble remain humiliated, the hungry are not filled, and the rich are: make good your word, and begin with us. Open our hearts and unblock our ears to hear the voices of the poor and share their struggle; and send us away empty with longing for your promises to come true in Jesus Christ. Amen.

Please be seated.

First Lesson

Isaiah 35:1-10

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad,
the desert shall rejoice and blossom;
like the crocus it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing.

The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it,
the majesty of Carmel and Sharon.
They shall see the glory of the Lord,
the majesty of our God.

Strengthen the weak hands,
and make firm the feeble knees.
Say to those who are of a fearful heart,
"Be strong, do not fear!
Here is your God.
He will come with vengeance,
with terrible recompense.
He will come and save you."

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped;
then the lame shall leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy.
For waters shall break forth in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;
the burning sand shall become a pool,
and the thirsty ground springs of water;
the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp,
the grass shall become reeds and rushes.

A highway shall be there,
and it shall be called the Holy Way;
the unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for God's people; no traveler, not even fools, shall go astray.
No lion shall be there,
nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it;
they shall not be found there,
but the redeemed shall walk there.
And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing;
everlasting joy shall be upon their heads;
they shall obtain joy and gladness,
and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Reader	Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People	Thanks be to God

Tell it out a-mong the na tions, and say, "Be-hold, he comes, our God and Sav ior." Al - le - lu-ia.

ANTIPHON - Sung by the Cantor, then by All

Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help! *
whose hope is in the Lord their God;

Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them; *
who keeps his promise for ever;

Who gives justice to those who are oppressed, *
and food to those who hunger.

The Lord sets the prisoners free;
the Lord opens the eyes of the blind; *
the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;

The Lord loves the righteous;
the Lord cares for the stranger; *
he sustains the orphan and widow,
but frustrates the way of the wicked.

The Lord shall reign for ever, *
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.
Hallelujah!

ANTIPHON - Sung by All

Second Lesson

James 5:7-10

Be patient, therefore, beloved, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious crop from the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near. Beloved, do not grumble against one another, so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors! As an example of suffering and patience, beloved, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

Reader	Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People	Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Antiphon based on Veni, veni, Emmanuel

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 11:2-11

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, O Christ.

When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, “Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?” Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me.”

As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written,

‘See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.’

“Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord
People Praise to you, O Christ

Please be seated.

Sermon

The Rev. Colleen Sterne

[Allow for a few moments of silence]

All who are able, please stand.

Affirmation of Faith

Sister Joan Chittister, OSB

We believe in God who made us all,
and whose divinity infuses life with the sacred.
We believe in the multiple revelations of God, alive in every human heart, expressed in every culture, found in all the wisdoms of the world.
We believe in Jesus, the Christ, who leads us to the fullness of humanity, to what we are meant to become.
Through Christ, we become new people, called beyond the consequences of our brokenness, lifted to the fullness of life.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath of God on earth, who keeps the Christ vision present to souls yet in darkness, gives light to hearts now blind, infuses energy into spirits yet weary, isolated, searching and confused.

We believe in God who is life. Amen.

Prayers of the People

adapted from White and Graves Hear Our Prayer

O God, who has created and loved us and who calls to us be still and wait. Heed our prayers as we say,
God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Help us to hear and to accept gratefully your call to be God's people, ignoring the glory and favor of this world in favor of the glory of the kingdom of God. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Turn us away from our fears and division and teach us to embrace your promise, that ours might be a nation of hope and generosity. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Open our eyes to the majesty of your creation and strengthen our resolve to preserve its abundance for the sustenance of all future generations. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Lead us to where your loving presence is most needed and help us to be your agents of love to our neighbors. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Enter into the lives of all who suffer, that they might draw strength from your presence. We pray for all those on our parish prayer list, and others we now name, silently or aloud:

[Pause to offer names.]

God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Deal tenderly with those who are grieving and with those whose wounds from loss are reopened at this time of year.

[Pause to offer names.]

May we feel the assurance of your promises that we will be reunited in your glorious presence in the new age. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

The Presider adds a concluding Collect:

Gracious God, in the face of Christ we see the fullness of your love for us, help us to be the people you created us to be and to live fully in the light of your countenance. All this we ask in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Confession

Deacon We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins:

People God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

Please be seated.

Holy are you, God of Jesse, for the branch of our salvation is rooted in you. To Abraham you promised to raise up a people bound to you in love, and through the household of David you brought life greater than our imagining in a child of grace, Jesus our Savior. Though we deny your love for us and seek to limit the reach of your mercy to others, you beckon us to repentance, opening our eyes to new life, and encouraging us to join your family of faith. In your Son's death we see the depth of our sin; yet in his resurrection we see the extent of your grace. You bless us beyond reckoning, for you welcome us into the company of prophets and apostles and saints, on earth and in heaven, with whom forever we sing your praise:

Presider

Anointing God, your Spirit rested upon your Son with wisdom and understanding, counsel and might, knowledge and fear. In Christ you have anointed your future out of our past, your kingdom out of our plans, and your salvation out of our despair. As your Spirit rested upon him, send down that same anointing Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be for us the body and blood of Jesus Christ; who, at supper with his disciples, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread and gave it to them saying, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me." After supper, he took the cup. Again he gave you thanks, and gave it to his disciples saying, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Great is the mystery of faith:

People:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Astonishing God, your prophet Isaiah envisioned a day when the wolf and lamb would lie down together, and the leopard with the kid, and a little child would lead them. Astonish us anew by your gentle ways of peace. Shape your church to live from faith, and not from fear. Make your future present through the lives of those who show us how to love our enemies. Hasten the day when the earth will be full of the knowledge of you, and your fullness will be all in all, and all creation from the depths of the sea to the heights of the mountains will know the peace to which your Son shall lead. Awaken that dawn when we are surrounded with everlasting praise to you: creator, redeemer, and sustainer, ever one God. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

And now let us pray together, in the words Jesus gave his disciples:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction Anthem

Agnus Dei from Deutsche Messe - Franz Schubert
1982 Hymnal - S 164, arr. Richard Proulx

Je- sus, Lamb of God: have mer- cy on us. Je- sus, bear- er of our sins: have mer - cy on us. Je - sus re- deem - er, re- deem- er of the world:
give us your peace, give us your peace.

The Invitation

Presider This is the table of Jesus Christ. It is made ready for those who love him and for those who want to know Christ more. So come, you who have little and you who have much; you who have been here often, and you who have not been here long; you who have tried to follow and you who feel you have failed. Come, because it is God who invites you.

The Holy Communion

Whoever you are, and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith, you are welcome at God's table for communion. Please come forward to receive communion standing in a semi-circle around the altar. You have the option to receive only the bread, or the bread intincted (dipped) into the wine and placed into your hand by the clergy person distributing communion. If you wish to receive only the bread, please say "bread only" as it's your turn to receive. Gluten free wafers are also available.

Regardless of whether you're receiving the bread only, or the bread and wine, you will hear the phrases, "the body of Christ, the bread of heaven" and "the blood of Christ, the cup of salvation" as communion is offered to you. As the ushers invite your row forward, please come up the center aisle to receive communion, then return to your seat via the side aisle. If you're unable to leave the pew, please notify an usher and communion will be brought to you. If you do not wish to receive communion, simply cross your arms across your chest; this will signal to the clergy to offer a blessing in lieu of communion.

Prayer ministers are available at the back of the church to pray for personal needs or concerns or to share your joys. If desired, anointing with holy oil is available from the prayer ministers as well.

All who are able, please stand.

Communion Anthem

The "O" Antiphons

Peter Hallock (1924-2014)

V: O Oriens (O Dawn of the East)

O Oriens, splendor lucis æternæ, et sol justitiæ: veni, et illumina sedentes in tenebris, et umbra mortis.

O Rising Dawn, brightness of the light eternal, sun of righteousness: Come and enlighten those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death.

VI: O Rex Gentium

O Rex Gentium, et desideratus earum, lapisque angularis, qui facis utraque unum: veni, et salva hominem, quem de limo formasti.

O King of Nations and their desire, you are the cornerstone that binds two into one: Come and save the creature whom you have fashioned from clay.

- The origin of the "O" Antiphons is not known. Manuscripts from the ninth century suggest they may be attributed to St. Gregory the Great. Each presents a name given to Christ in the Old Testament and a petition asking for the fulfillment of a scriptural promise or prophecy. The antiphon texts form the basis for the verses of the beloved Advent hymn, "O come, O come, Emmanuel".

Presider
People

Let us pray.

Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew and make us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

Commendation of Eucharistic Visitors

Presider Beloved community, we send our eucharistic visitors to share this Holy Communion with those who could not worship here today.

People May they carry the prayers of all of us as they take the sacrament of the presence of Christ.

The Blessing

adapted from Prayers for an Inclusive Church

May the God who brings heaven close to earth give truth to our seeing and flame to our longing that our hearts might be ready to be born again in love;
And may the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and always. Amen.

Recessional Hymn 65

Prepare the way, O Zion

The Dismissal

Deacon As we await our coming Savior, go in the peace of Christ.

People Thanks be to God.

Get Your "Celebrate Christmas at Trinity" Postcards

Do you have a friend, family, or neighbor you'd like to invite to one of Trinity's Christmas services? If so, please pick up a few postcards from the welcome table and invite them!

Christmas Cookie Walk and Holiday Gift Raffle – Sunday, December 14, 9am-12:30pm

Trinity is hosting our fifth annual Christmas Cookie Walk in the Parish Hall. You'll select from over 90 varieties of homemade Christmas cookies and enter the raffle for some fantastic gift items (see list below.) The San Marcos Madrigals choir will be with us again singing Christmas carols. Don't miss it!!

Greening of the Church for Christmas – Wednesday, December 24, 9:30am-12:30pm

Help transform our sanctuary into a magical space for our Christmas services. There is a job for everyone, no experience necessary. Stay for as little or as long as you are able. Sign up on the easel at coffee hour or on our website under Upcoming Events.
