In the event of school closure on any of the above dates, Friday December 22nd is a make-up exam day.

Any student who is absent on an exam day needs to make up their exam(s) on Friday December 22nd or at another time during exam week to be determined by the teacher.

Students who do not have an exam do not need to be at school and are allowed to leave once their exams are finished for the day.

Students are required to stay for the duration of the exam bell and all students are expected to take their exam during the regularly scheduled time.

If a student is at school but not in an exam they need to be studying quietly in the Library or the Cafeteria.

The metro busses will be arriving at normal time. Any student waiting to ride the Metro must wait in the cafeteria.

Students are to be in normal school uniform during exams.

There are no exemptions for semester exams.
