

Happy Holidays from your friends at Diamond Financial!

We want to wish you and your family a safe, healthy and Happy Holiday season and a prosperous New Year

As we usher in the new year with great celebrations and expectations for 2020, we want to take this moment to express our heartfelt gratitude to you, our brokers, our friends.

The Holiday season is upon us and I cannot help but to reflect on all the wonderful relationships strengthened throughout 2019, along with the many new ones created. The dreams we've all made happen for the many families and all the lives we've touched these last 12 months. I am so very grateful to be included in an industry that effects and changes so many lives every day.

Enjoying so many wonderful broker relationships, we truly appreciate your business, your friendship and for the trust you've placed in us during these past 25 years.

We're grateful that we've become more than just a funding platform to you, we've become a solutions provider, an answer source for deal making structuring, a rule authority, but most importantly, a friend to our brokers. A sounding board, an ideas thinktank at times and this is truly what makes the difference to us. In today's technology banking markets, we're still humans and still answer our phones. Relationships still matter to us!

Today, our company focuses on ways to strengthen relationships with our valued brokers and to continue building lasting friendships that go far beyond the check at the closing table. As our capacity and volume increases, so does our dedication to our relationships and customers. We only grow through growing your office and increasing your volume.

We look forward to building and strengthening our relationships in the new year, as we have in the past.

We hope your offices and lives are filled with Happiness and Joy this Holiday Season.

Steve Mariani and the entire staff of Diamond Financial Diamond Financial Services, Inc.

