Local Business Owner, Steve Mariani Named to NSBA Leadership Council

Raleigh, NC – Steve Mariani, owner of Diamond Financial Services, was recently named to the National Small Business Association (NSBA) Leadership Council. NSBA is the nation's oldest small-business advocacy organization and operates on a staunchly nonpartisan basis. Mr. Mariani, a recognized leader in the small-business community, joins the NSBA Leadership Council alongside other small-business advocates from across the country as they work to promote the interests of small business to policymakers in Washington, D.C.

"As a small-business owner, I see daily the importance of being involved and active when it comes to laws and regulation," stated Mr. Mariani. "Joining NSBA's Leadership Council will enable me to take our collective small-business message to the people that need to hear it most: Congress."

Since 1996, Steve has assisted the small business communities with acquisition transaction financing and has directly assisted in funding over $1 Billion in SBA loans. Steve has been traveling the country for many years as he educates and assists small businesses in ways to greatly increase their growth opportunities. Steve consistently, and freely, shares his knowledge and many years of experience to assist and grow the private sector.

Mr. Mariani has joined the NSBA Leadership Council as part of his efforts to tackle the many critical issues facing small business, including tax reform, regulatory restraint, health care costs and how access to capital will impact small business. The NSBA Leadership Council is focused on providing valuable networking between small-business advocates from across the country while ensuring small business a seat at the table as Congress and regulators take up key small-business proposals.

"I am proud to have Steve Mariani as part of our Leadership Council," stated NSBA President and CEO Todd McCracken. "He came to us highly recommended, and I look forward our coordinated efforts for years to come."
