

Meet Our Speaker: Zippy Duvall

We are pleased to welcome Zippy Duvall, President of the American Farm Bureau Federation, as a featured speaker at this year's Tri-State Conference.

A third-generation farmer from Georgia, Zippy farms alongside his son, raising beef cattle and broiler chickens while continuing his family's long-standing commitment to the land. His Farm Bureau leadership journey began as a young farmer, eventually leading him from Georgia Farm Bureau to the national presidency.

For nearly a decade, Zippy has served as the voice of America's farmers and ranchers in Washington, D.C., working on issues ranging from farm policy and trade to agricultural labor, taxes, regulations and the future of family farms. He has consistently emphasized the importance of grassroots advocacy and the strength that comes when farmers speak with a unified voice.

Join us for an opportunity to hear directly from one of agriculture's national leaders about the challenges facing farmers today, the issues shaping agriculture's future, and the important role Farm Bureau plays in making sure farmers have a seat at the table.

It promises to be a conversation you won't want to miss.
