

Dr. Alan D Barry

Director of Greenwich Department of Human Services

Dr. Barry earned a Masters degree in Social Work and a Ph.D. in Public Policy and Administration from St. Louis University. He has over 35 years of healthcare administration experience mainly in the behavioral health field and joined the Greenwich Department of Human Services as Commissioner in 2010. He has held executive leadership positions in the private for-profit, not-for-profit and public sectors. Prior to joining the Department of Social Services he served as Associate Director for the Southwest Connecticut Mental Health System (DMHAS) where he directed the efforts to re-organize and consolidate the clinical and support programs of a large public sector multi-service delivery system.
