February in the high desert of northern New Mexico offers a quiet beauty. Clear skies bring brisk nights, afternoon sun warms the days and creates shadow plays amidst the red rocks. Frosted mesas and mountain tops turn into wonderlands. We invite you to join us in the stillness of winter. Let the landscape and our transformational retreats inspire you.

Valentine's Weekend Under the Stars at Ghost Ranch — February 10-12, 2017

Celebrate Valentine's Day a few days early with someone you love. Our Valentine's Weekend Under the Stars Weekend Package offers space to rest and explore together. The $450 package rate (for 2 people) includes 2 nights lodging with Private Bath (upper mesa in Coyote or Tumbleweed) or a room with a Private Bath on the historic lower level of the Ranch, 5 meals and Saturday evening Robert Mirabal Concert tickets.

Finding Your True Nature — February 10-12, 2017

Authentic, sustainable change emerges from an understanding of who you are and how you want to show up in the world. During this transition time between the old and new years, step out of the rapid pace of life and "business as usual" so as to enter a creative, resilient and deeper self. Amidst the 21,000 acres of Ghost Ranch, co-create a sacred space for joy, connection and a transformative experience through the art of balancing the body, mind and spirit.

An Evening of Music & Myth with Robert Mirabal — February 11, 2017

Join in an evening of Music & Myth with two-time Grammy Award-winning Native American musician, Robert Mirabal. This performance captures the last 25 years of Robert's artistry in song, dance, spoken word and visual imagery. Maintaining a traditional life, keeping the centuries-old customs of the Taos Pueblo people, Mirabal has been described as a Native American "Renaissance man"—musician, composer, painter, master craftsman, poet, actor, screenwriter, horseman and farmer—he travels extensively playing his music all over the world.
