November 2019

Dear Scholar,

Congratulations!

It gives us immense pleasure to congratulate you on your successful college completion. We selected you as a Scholar because you demonstrated the academic potential and determination needed to succeed in college and in life. We had every confidence that you had what it would take to graduate from college and you proved us right.

While the lack of a piece of paper has never held you back, your diploma is evidence of the knowledge and skills you have gained. Remember, it's the gifts and attributes you bring to the table that will allow you to do something remarkable with your life.

And now, a new journey begins. The world is waiting for you and we can't wait to see how you will put your talents to use. May your knowledge and determination to succeed carry you far.

Congratulations on your graduation.

Onward and Forward,
TheDream.US
