

In-Person

Regional Educational Leadership Academy

The Regional Educational Leadership Academy (RELA) is designed to give parents and educators an inside view of the Inland Empire region. Participants will take part in field trips to various locations within the Inland Empire. The field trips are organized to meet new people and develop the leadership capacity of parents and educators while learning about the community in which they live, work and play. In addition, the sessions will provide you with an overview of the opportunities participants will engage in through the academy.
