We are in the midst of a Skills Revolution, where technology is rapidly transforming in-demand skill needed across Midwest manufacturers. Though we cannot slow the pace of change, we can invest in skills to build workforce of tomorrow and ensure we have the talent to win in the digital age. The Paranet Group has partnered with ManpowerGroup and Rockwell Automation for a discussion on the industry's workforce trends, the impact of talent supply and demand, and solutions for the employers alike to succeed today and tomorrow.
