

THERE ARE JEWS HERE

Film Screening & Discussion

Saturday, April 15th at 8:15 p.m., Sanctuary

There Are Jews Here follows the untold stories of four once thriving American Jewish communities that are now barely holding on. There Are Jews Here is both a celebration of their tenacity and a cautionary tale: a warning that their histories, synagogues, cemeteries, and sacred possessions could vanish without a trace.

Join us for a film screening and discussion with two of the participants in this moving documentary.
