

Or Atid and our neighbors at Peace Lutheran Church and the Islamic Center of Boston, continue to work with Family Promise to help families experiencing homelessness. Although we cannot welcome the families in person, Family Promise continues to make sure they have safe places to stay and continue to receive food and other support services while transitioning to a longer term housing situation.

Family Promise is a non-profit, mainly volunteer, organization that relies on donations to support its operations. 'Keeping the Promise' is a holiday concert fund raising event that will be held virtually this year on Saturday, December 5th at 7 PM. Guests include Livingston Taylor and James Montgomery, among others. As part of the fund raising effort, congregations have been asked to put together themed gift baskets that will be raffled during the event. Congregation Or Atid will donate a 'Bread Maker's Paradise' basket that will include a bread machine, cookbook, yeast, and a variety of flours. We estimate the cost to be $175 - $200. Please help us support this organization by making a monetary donation - payable to Congregation Or Atid Light of the Future Fund - to offset the cost of the items in the basket. Donations can be made by check or through PayPal; please note 'Family Promise' in the memo line or info section.

Please visit the website at

<https://familypromisemetrowest.salsalabs.org/keepingthepromise/index.html> and consider attending the concert and bidding on your favorite basket.

Thank you,

Cindy Fenichel. cf@asktheoracle.com

Barbara Boykin barbara@theboykins.com

