MID-SEASON REPORT

INTRODUCTION

As we find ourselves in the clutches of winter and look for something to keep us engaged and entertained, we are happy to provide you with our Mid-Season TV overview of what's hot and what's not for shows premiering this winter.

We'll also bring you up-to-speed on how the new Fall 2019 shows are performing (and how last year's mid-season report predictions fared).

2019 MID-SEASON REPORT CARD

HOW DID LAST FEBRUARY'S PREDICTIONS FARE?

It is a well known fact that mid-season programming has a lesser chance of success compared with their fall debuting counterparts for the simple reason of a lack of promotion. New fall shows are highly promoted weeks prior to their debut (at times to the point of annoyance) whereas mid-season shows are quietly slipped into the schedule to replace a cancelled show or one going into hiatus. In addition, viewers have already determined their appointment shows from the fall and do not easily disrupt those established patterns.

All that to say, this was the lowest scoring mid-seaon report card we have earned to date, with six correct predictions out of fourteen new entries, totalling a whopping 43%.

The two shows we projected to reach "Hit" status last mid-season fell victim to the lack of promotion curse. While both The Red Line and The Enemy Within were both highly acclaimed series with well known stars who aired their full season of episodes, they both failed to resonate with viewers and were yanked by the U.S. networks immediately following their final episodes. It seems that networks no longer have the stick-to-it-iveness to wait until a show builds an audience overtime. With a plethora of pilots to choose from, they will just move on to the next one.

Four other shows we thought had a chance of surviving (The Fix, The Village, Whiskey Cavalier, and Abby's) were cancelled by the end of the season and the one we thought had no chance of survival (Schooled) was renewed for another season. Sometimes there is just no accounting for what people choose to view.

Five of the nineteen new shows have made it in the top 20 to date. All five were predicted to survive, however the popularity of The Masked Singer sitting at #4 overall is a bit of a surprise. While we expected it to do well in Canada given its "cheesy but fun" appeal, we are amazed that it ranks #1 of all the new shows that debuted this past fall.

Similarly, we did not expect Emergence to perform as well as it has. Alien/sci-fi shows usually take a while to build an audience (if they survive at all). Young star Alexa Swinton seems to be winning over fans of the show, allowing it to garner the #15 spot overall so far this season. Storylines have also kept audiences coming back for more.

Another star that is endearing herself to fans is the plucky Folake Olowfoyeku who plays Abishola opposite Billy Gardell in Bob (Hearts) Abishola. A delightful character, she is the draw that has pulled this show into the top 20.

Note the position of off prime show Saturday Night Live at #20. It seems that President Trump has provided enough content to put this show on par with prime time audience delivery.

MID-SEASON

OVERVIEW

NETWORK	DRAMA	COMEDY	GAME	REALITY	SCI FI
CTV/CTV2	3	1		1
Global	4	1
CITY	3	2
CBC	4
TOTAL	14	4		1

There are nineteen new shows landing on Canadian conventional networks this winter/spring. Building out the list include four new dramas from both CBC and Global, and Global also adds one new comedy. CTV has two dramas as well as one reality show, and their other channel CTV 2 is carrying one comedy plus one drama.

CITY rounds out the schedule with three dramas and two comedies - one of which is animated.

Some famous faces to be featured this winter are Rob Lowe, Edie Falco, Kim Cattrall, Christopher Plummer, and Archie Panjabi.

There does not seem to be a dominant theme or genre among this collection of shows but many do have a link to law enforcement or first responders.

9-1-1: LONE STAR

Sunday 10-11pm/Monday 8-9pm

January 19 & 20

PREDICTION

We sense a

This show will have to work hard to differentiate itself from 911, Chicago Fire /PD, and Station 19. The advantage it has is Rob Lowe's face shining on the silver screen.

SYNOPSIS:

Hit cop drama 9-1-1 expands its reach to the city of Austin, Tex., with its firstever new instalment. From 9-1-1 co-creators Ryan Murphy, Brad Falchuk, and Tim Minear, the series stars Rob Lowe (The Grinder, Parks & Recreation, The West Wing) as a sophisticated New York cop who, along with his son, relocates to Austin and must try to balance saving those who are at their most vulnerable with solving the problems in his own life. Lowe also serves as a coexecutive producer on the series.

FOR LIFE

February 11

PREDICTION

We sense a

HIT!

Viewers connect with stories based on real life. leading us to believe that audiences will follow his struggle for freedom week after week.

SYNOPSIS:

Inspired by the life of Isaac Wright Jr., For Life is a fictional, serialized, legal drama about a prisoner who becomes a lawyer, litigating cases for other inmates while fighting to overturn his own life sentence for a crime he didn't commit. His quest for freedom is driven by his desperate desire to get back to the family he loves and reclaim the life that was stolen from him. Through the window of his ferocious struggle and complicated relationship with a female prison warden, the series will also examine the flaws and challenges in our penal and legal systems. From Hank Steinberg, Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson via G-Unit Film & Television, Doug Robinson and Alison Greenspan of Doug Robinson Productions, and Isaac Wright Jr. The pilot is directed and executive produced by George Tillman Jr. (The Hate U Give).

For Life features Nicholas Pinnock (Marcella) as Aaron, Indira Varma (Game of Thrones) as Kate, Joy Bryant (Ballers) as Marie, Glenn Fleshler (Billions, Barry) as Frank, Dorian Missick (Southland) as Jamal, Tyla Harris (Six) as Jasmine, Mary Stuart Masterson (Blindspot) as Anya, and Boris McGiver (House of Cards) as DA Maskins.

FLIRTY DANCING

Wednesday 8-9pm

SYNOPSIS:

Jenna Dewan hosts this dancing/dating hybrid show. Two strangers learn half of a dance routine and then meet for the first time on a blind date where they will dance together without speaking. In a twist on the original UK format, the US adaptation will features singles performing a different choreographed dance with two potential love interests, before choosing the one they have the strongest connection with. Will it be love at first dance?

PREMIERES: January 1

PREDICTION

We sense a

If we think with our heads we would call this a cheesy premise that isn't worth your time. However, we know from experience that it will garner a sizeable audience because there are enough viewers out there that eat this stuff up.

FILTHY RICH

TBD

PREDICTION

We sense a

Reminiscent of the prime time soaps Dallas/ Dynasty days with backstabbing, affairs, cheating, money, betrayals - this is TV at its best! Kim Cattrall is perfect for this role.

SYNOPSIS:

From writer/director Tate Taylor (The Help, The Girl on the Train), Filthy Rich is about a southern Gothic family drama in which wealth, power, and religion collide – with outrageously soapy results. When the patriarch of a mega-rich Southern family, famed for creating a wildly successful Christian television network, dies in a plane crash, his wife Kim Cattrall and family are stunned to learn that he fathered three illegitimate children, all of whom are written into his will, threatening their family name and fortune. With monumental twists and turns, Filthy Rich presents a world in which everyone has an ulterior motive - and no one is going down without a fight.

Staring Gerald McRaney (This is Us), Kim Cattrall (Sex and the City), Melia Kreiling (Tyrant), Aubrey Dollar (Battle Creek), Corey Cott (The Good Fight), Benjamin Levy Aguilar (Straight Outta Compton), Mark L. Young (The Comeback), Olivia Macklin (The Young Pope), and Steve Harris (The Practice).

OUTMATCHED

Thursday 830-9pm

PREMIERES: January 23

PREDICTION

We sense a

MISS!

A unanimous thumbs down on this one! The pilot is a bit out there, and writing is stilted and forced.

SYNOPSIS:

A multi-camera family comedy, Outmatched focuses on a blue-collar couple in Atlantic City trying to raise four kids – three of whom just happen to be certified geniuses. Parenting is a challenge for anyone, but for Cay (Maggie Lawson, Lethal Weapon), a caustic, take-no-prisoners casino pit boss, and husband Mike (Jason Biggs, Orange is the New Black), a handyman and uncultivated guy's guy, parenting may as well be advanced calculus. Dealing with the demands and egos of three high-IQ children would be tricky for any parent, but it's especially hazardous for two working stiffs who barely got through high school. Mike and Cay are committed to bringing some normalcy to their kids' hectic, unconventional childhoods, but these geniuses don't make it easy. Outmatched takes an honest and heightened look at every parent's worst fear – that they're "ruining" their kids.

TOMMY

Thursday 10-11pm

SYNOPSIS:

Multiple Emmy® Award winner Edie Falco stars in Tommy as a former high-ranking NYPD officer who becomes the first female Chief of Police for Los Angeles. A true blue New Yorker, Abigail "Tommy" Thomas (Edie Falco) uses her unflinching honesty and hardball tactics to keep social, political, and national security issues from hindering effective law enforcement in the Southland. Tommy stars Edie Falco, Michael Chernus, Adelaide Clemens, David Fierro, Russell G. Jones as Aurelius Looper, Olivia Lucy Phillip as Kate Jones, and Joseph Lyle Taylor as Treat Dudik.

PREMIERES:

February 6

PREDICTION

We sense a

SURVIVOR!

Yes, this has been done before, but not with Edie Falco. She is stellar in this role and backed by the same producers as Bull which we think will ensure success.

FBI: MOST WANTED

SYNOPSIS:

From Emmy® Award winner Dick Wolf and the team behind FBI and the Law & Order franchise, FBI: Most Wanted is a high stakes drama that focuses on the Fugitive Task Force that relentlessly tracks and captures notorious criminals on the Bureau's Most Wanted list. Seasoned agent Jess LaCroix (Julian McMahon) oversees the highly skilled team which functions as a mobile undercover unit that's always out in the field, pursuing those who are most desperate to elude justice. FBI: Most Wanted stars Julian McMahon, Alana De La Garza, Keisha Castle-Hughes, Kellan Lutz, Roxy Sternberg, and Nathaniel Arcand.

PREMIERES:

January 7, 10pm

PREDICTION

We sense a

SURVIVOR!

Dick Wolf seems to have the knack for creating successful crime shows and this should be no different. We are looking for edgier story lines to have a positive impact and allow it to stand out next to similar shows.

BROKE

SYNOPSIS:

Jaime Camil and Pauley Perrette star in Broke, a comedy about Jackie (Pauley Perrette), a single suburban mother who's shocked when her estranged sister Elizabeth (Natasha Leggero), her sister's outrageously wealthy, big-hearted Latin husband Javier (Camil), and Javier's fiercely loyal assistant/driver/friend land on her doorstep in need of a place to live after the couple's money dries up. Though class differences may separate the women, and the size of the house and the number of people living in it will test the limits of family ties, the familiar bond of sisterhood might be the catalyst they need to restore their relationship.

PREMIERES: TBD

PREDICTION

We sense a

MISS!

Another single mom struggling... been there, done that. Besides, the jokes and cast don't carry enough weight to sustain viewer attention weekly.

DEPARTURE

PREDICTION

We sense a

HIT!

Calling this a stellar cast is an understatement. The suspenseful, exciting storyline will be sure to draw viewers throughout the limited episode run of this mini-series.

SYNOPSIS:

A Canadian acting icon and a beloved star of The Good Wife have been cast in the intriguing new thriller Departure, heading to Global next year. The six-part event series starring Oscar winner Christopher Plummer and Emmy winner Archie Panjabi has begun production in Toronto.

Described as a "high-octane conspiracy series" and an "adrenaline-fuelled serialized thrill ride," Departure follows the mystery that ensues after a passenger airliner vanishes while flying over the Atlantic Ocean.

Kendra Malley (Panjabi), the recently widowed, brilliant aviation investigator, is called in by her former boss and mentor Howard Lawson (Plummer) to investigate the mysterious crash. With the whole world watching, Kendra and her team race to pinpoint the missing aircraft and locate possible survivors.

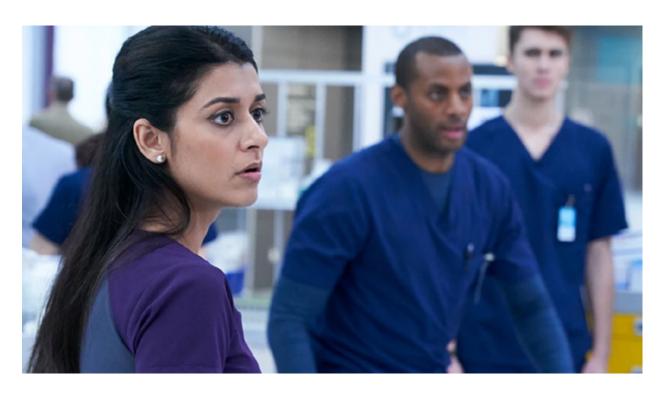

They must battle through a host of suspects and motives — pilot suicide, terrorism, politically motivated murder, systems failure — to determine what really happened to Flight 716... and how to stop it from happening again.

NURSES

Monday 8-9pm

PREMIERES: January 6

PREDICTION

We sense a

Majority rules in sealing the fate of this new medical drama. Despite the fact it is created by the makers of the successful Rookie Blue, the team feels it was not capable of sustaining a loyal following week after week.

SYNOPSIS:

Set in Toronto, the series follows five young nurses working on the frontlines of a busy downtown hospital, dedicating their lives to helping others while struggling to help themselves. Grace Knight (played by Tiera Skovbye) is a young nurse looking for a fresh start until someone from her past turns up who could jeopardize her career; Ashley Collins (played by Natasha Calis) is a wild and unapologetic adrenaline junky who lives for the fast pace of the hospital; Keon Colby (played by Jordan Johnson-Hinds) is a former college football star who's trying to prove he's more than he was on the field; Nazneen Khan (played by Sandy Sidhu) is a whip-smart daughter of a wealthy family in India who moved to Canada to reinvent herself at her first job ever; and Wolf Burke (played by Donald Maclean Jr.) is soft hearted and playful, but with a secret that may find him in over his head.

FORTUNATE SON

VIEW TRAILER

PREMIERES: January 8

PREDICTION

We sense a

SURVIVOR

This eight episode spy drama will have appeal to viewers who like spy thrillers and true stories. We sense a definite survivor.

SYNOPSIS:

Fortunate Son, from the producers of Heartland and Motive, is a spy drama set in the social and political chaos of 1968, inspired by a true story. Pursued into Canada by the FBI, the matriarch of an American activist family helps smuggle Vietnam war deserters and draft dodgers across the border. What she doesn't know is that one of the deserters is an agent of the CIA sent to spy on her. Created by Andrew Wreggitt (Jack, Borealis) who also serves as showrunner, the series is executive produced by Tom Cox, Jordy Randall, and Erin Haskett. Stefan Schwartz (The Americans, Dexter) is the show's lead director.

THE SOUNDS

PREDICTION

We sense a

SURVIVOR!

Who doesn't like intrigue and drama! In our eyes, this New Zealand/Canadian production is a Survivor!

SYNOPSIS:

An eight-part psychological thriller, The Sounds is set against the stunning backdrop of New Zealand's South Island and the exotic landscape of Marlborough Sounds. When Maggie and Tom Cabbott move to the town of Pelorus to escape the oppressive influence of Tom's family, they plan to start a new business venture that will reinvigorate the local economy and set them on a new life path. But when Tom disappears, unsettling facts about him soon come to light, and the search brings long-buried wounds to the surface. As Maggie struggles to navigate the escalating events, it becomes clear that in this small, seemingly close-knit community, nothing and no one is quite what they seem. The New Zealand/Canadian co-production is created and written by bestselling New Zealand author Sarah-Kate Lynch and directed by Peter Stebbings. The show stars Rachelle Lefevre and Matt Whelan.

ENSLAVED

PREMIERES: TBD

PREDICTION

We sense a

SURVIVOR!

This documentary is very timely and relevant and should do well particularly with Samuel L. Jackson's clout both in front and behind the camera.

SYNOPSIS:

Enslaved is a blue-chip documentary series led by Samuel L. Jackson and directed by Canadian filmmaker Simcha Jacobovici (The Naked Archaeologist) that charts the history of slavery through underwater archaeology. The series coincides with the 400-year anniversary of the first African brought to the New World as a slave, and will retrace the harrowing sea voyage that brought millions to a life of slavery. Enslaved is produced by Felix Golubev and Ric Bienstock and executive produced by Samuel L. Jackson, LaTanya Jackson, Eli Selden, Rob Lee, Simcha Jacobovici and Yaron Niski. International distribution is being carried out by Fremantle.

HIGH ARCTIC HAULERS

VIEW TRAILER

SYNOPSIS:

Sunday 8-9pm

High Arctic Haulers follows the high-stakes drama at sea as shipping crews battle ice and treacherous tides to keep the towns at the top of the world supplied and alive. It's an obstacle course of a delivery route that extends to the most Norther town in Canada. For the people who live in the High Arctic, there is no option - the haul MUST get through.

PREDICTION

We sense a

Same idea as Highway to Hell on Discovery. Since that show does well, we see no reason why this one won't also.

SYNOPSIS:

Devs follows a young computer engineer, Lily Chan, as she investigates the secretive development division of her employer, a cutting-edge tech company based in San Francisco, whom she believes are behind the murder of her boyfriend. The show dives into concepts like quantam computing and artificial intelligence. Alex Garland serves as writer and executive producer. Sonoya Mizuno plays Lily Chan, while Jin Ha plays her boyfriend Jamie.

PREMIERES: March

PREDICTION

We sense a

Star Trek meets Black Mirror – a sci fi and drama combine to maximize viewership. Touting the same director and star as Ex Machina and Annihillation, we think has a good chance at survival.

COUNCIL OF DADS

SYNOPSIS:

In Council Of Dads, Scott, a loving father of four has his entire life's plan thrown into upheaval by an unexpected health scare. To fight back, he calls on a few of his closest allies to step in as back-up dads for every stage of his growing family's life. Scott assembles a trusted group of role models that includes his oldest friend, his AA sponsor, and his surgeon. These men agree to devote themselves to supporting and guiding Scott's amazing family through all the triumphs and challenges life has to offer - just in case he can't be there to do so himself.

PREMIERES: March

PREDICTION

We sense a

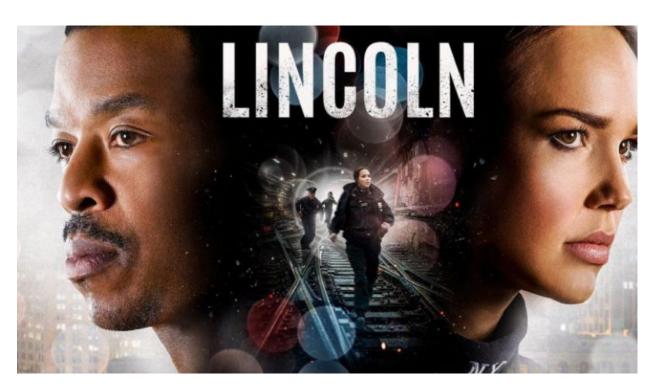

The premise reverberates back and forth between thoughtful and depressingly sad. Anyone looking to be entertained will not tune in this downer!

LINCOLN

Friday 8-9pm

SYNOPSIS:

Inspired by the best-selling book The Bone Collector, former NYPD detective and forensic genius Lincoln Rhyme was at the top of his game until a serious accident at the hands of a notorious serial killer forced him out of the field.

When Amelia Sachs, an intuitive young officer who's got her own gift for profiling finds herself hot on the killer's trail, Rhyme in turn finds a partner for this new game of cat and mouse. As the unlikely detective duo joins forces to crack the city's most confounding cases, they must also race to take down the enigmatic Bone Collector who brought them together.

PREMIERES: January 10

PREDICTION

We sense a

The consensus is that this crime drama based on a bestseller has enough legs to survive the season.

THE BAKER & THE BEAUTY

SYNOPSIS:

In The Baker & The Beauty, Daniel Garcia is working in the family bakery and doing everything that his loving Cuban parents and siblings expect him to do. But on a wild Miami night when he meets Noa Hamilton, an international superstar and fashion mogul, his life moves into the spotlight. Will this unlikely couple upend their lives to be together and pull their families into a culture clash?

PREMIERES: TBD

PREDICTION

We sense a

This show is a hit in Israel as it airs Season Two. If you ask us, it seems predictable and formulaic, and doesn't have what it takes to avoid the chopping block.

DUNCANVILLE

Sunday 830-9pm

SYNOPSIS:

Spectacularly average Duncan is a teenage boy with a rich fantasy life in this animated sitcom. His mother, Annie, a parking enforcement officer who dreams of someday being a detective, lives in perpetual fear that her teenage son is one bad decision from ruining his life and will do anything to stop him from doing so. His father, Jack, is a classic-rock-obsessed plumber who's determined to be a better dad than his father. Rounding out the family is two younger sisters, Kimberly and Jing. Helping Duncan navigate adolescence are his friends, class clown Bex, trendy influencer Yangzi, aspiring troubled youth Wolf, and his on-again, off-again crush, Mia. Voices include Amy Poehler, Ty Burrell, Rashida Jones, and Yassir Lester.

PREMIERES:

February 16

PREDICTION

We sense a

SURVIVOR

Amy Poehler teaming up with The Simpsons producers is a recipe for a sure thing! With The Simpsons as a lead-in, this show is guaranteed a spot in CITY's Sunday night animated lineup.

PREDICTION

We sense a

HIT!

This suspense filled drama will surely keep us guessing what happened until the end of the season.

SYNOPSIS:

Psychiatrist Henri Lacombe (Claude Legault) runs the National Institute of Mental Health. Day after day, his job is to ease his patients' suffering. His wife, Anne Beaulieu (Evelyne de la Chenelière), is a consulting psychologist in a private clinic. The two of them deal with the highs and lows of everyday life with their two children, Marine (Marianne Verville) and William (Henri Picard). Henri's world turns upside down the day Anne fails to show up to meet him at a restaurant. What happened to her? That's how Cérébrum begins. The investigation into Anne's disappearance, conducted by Simone Vallier (Christine Beaulieu), raises lots of questions. Does someone have it in for Anne? A friend or family member? A patient? Or could it have something to do with Henri's work with extremely volatile patients? There's no shortage of possibilities.

LA SEMAINE DES QUATRE JULIE

Monday - Thursday, 9-10pm

SYNOPSIS:

Reunited with long-time writing partner Stéphane Laporte (with whom she created some of Quebec's most memorable television moments, such as La voix, Le banquier and Star academie), Julie Snyder is creating a daily evening talk show destined to become Quebec's new prime-time television appointment.

On the agenda: a steady stream of interviews, segments, bold moves and crazy antics, only as Julie can deliver.

PREMIERES: JANUARY 6

PREDICTION

We sense a

HIT!

This is the most talked about show coming to Quebec television this winter. Julie will surely make her mark with this talk show! Her effervescence is contagious and could bring new viewers to Vtélé.
