GOVERNOR APRIL'S MESSAGE

Do you ever feel like you are on a roller coaster? Just when you think all the twists and twirls are coming to an end, something else surprising is just around the next turn.

That is how I feel my life has been this past year. Thank goodness I am flexible, optimistic and believe that things happen for a reason. I want to thank everyone who has supported me, encouraged me and been there for me through this past year as I had to say goodbye to my husband of 43 years and prepare for the position and responsibilities as District Governor.

I thought our recent conference theme "Rainbow of Possibilities" was so appropriate this year. With everything going on in our unpredictable world it reminded me that without a little rain there would be no rainbows. Rainbows are a sign of hope, beauty after a storm and good fortune. I believe Altrusans are the rainbows in many people's lives.

The conference was so much fun this year and I felt all the enthusiasm, positivity, support, and love! I am so proud of my San Luis Obispo County Club for doing such a great job as the host club. I also want to thank all the individuals and clubs who contributed to making this a very successful conference, including the Santa Maria Club who were terrific Expeditors!

My theme as the District Eleven Governor for the next two years, ALTRUSA SMILE – Serve, Mentor, Inspire, Lead, and Enjoy will also help emphasize my goals for the biennium. I know our clubs will continue to "Serve" their communities, not only with on-going projects but identifying the needs for additional service projects and support. I truly believe in the power of "Mentoring" and want to encourage all of our members to share their own experiences, knowledge, and wisdom with newer members. I want our members to realize how much we "Inspire" others with our commitment and our passion to serve in our communities as members of Altrusa and even inspire others to become members.

"Leadership" is a key element to Altrusa and my goal is to see more members accept leadership roles at every level of the Altrusa experience. And finally, "Enjoy!" One of my goals is that I want everyone to realize and remember to have fun and look forward to all our Altrusa experiences.

I am very excited to work with our District Board Officers, District Chairs, and Club Presidents. It is a great group and I know we will accomplish a lot as well as have some fun as leaders of District Eleven these next two years.

CONTACT INFORMATION FOR DISTRICT LEADERS AND DISTRICT WEBSITE

Please be aware that District Board members and District Chairs will be using their own email addresses this biennium. In the past we have used email addresses assigned to the various positions through our District website. Due to the expense of maintaining our current website it is no longer accessible and it was decided to explore different possibilities for the district website.

We will keep everyone informed when a new website is available. In the meantime, you are encouraged to utilize all the information available on the International website at altrusa.org and delete all email addresses in your contact list that end in @altrusadistricteleven.org. A list of District Leaders and contact information is available on the last page of this DSB along with a list of assigned Board officers who will be liaisons to our district clubs for the next two years. We will be discussing club visits at our next board meeting. I will be sharing this information with the club presidents soon.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEW CLUBS

We are so excited to announce that the Southern California Virtual Club and the Coachella Valley Club are ready to Charter their clubs and install their officers. Because of new guidelines developed by Altrusa International a new club can now charter with a minimum of primary members and then include non-primary members to achieve a total of 15 members. A non-primary member also belongs to another Altrusa club as a primary member of that club. Please reach out to congratulate these clubs and the charter members.

Conference 2023 Evaluations

Thank you to everyone who attended the conference and took the time to do the conference evaluations. Overall, there was a lot of great feedback and some very positive comments and suggestions for next year. Of course, as every year most attendees want more time! More time between sessions, more free time, more social time, more time for shopping, and more time to rest. The summaries below are taken from the evaluations collected at the conference.

Everyone seemed to really enjoy the Personality Colors of the Rainbow All Conference Workshop as they learned about their own leadership style and were able to do some club team building.

Jean Steel, the inspirational and motivational guest speaker, provided fun and laughter as she entertained us with her slides and stories that were positive, uplifting, and informative as she talked about real life situations and made us think about our own attitudes and how we respond to what happens around us.

The presentation

by the two ASTRA High School Clubs was well received and everyone seemed to love hearing from the young people who shared their experiences, goals, and appreciation for their involvement as an ASTRA member. More clubs were motivated into looking at starting an ASTRA Club in their own communities.

Director – Cindy Mansfield, Tucson

I am your example that the bylaws for District Eleven officer elections are being followed! I was nominated from the floor at the Saturday business meeting of the Conference in Santa Maria. The Delegates at Conference voted me in for the Director position on the District Eleven Board. And boy am I excited!

I am a recently returned member of Altrusa. I joined the Indian Wells Valley club in 1994, then transferred to the Tucson club when I moved for work in 1996.

After a few years I slipped away and focused on my work. Recently, I rejoined Altrusa and was President of the Tucson Club through the Covid restrictions where I hosted all our meetings over Zoom. In December 2022, I took early retirement from my position at Raytheon as a Software Quality Engineer. My plan for retirement is to focus on Altrusa and travel the U.S. in my motorhome with my puppy (honorary Altrusan, Miss Fluffy). I'll be driving to San Antonio for the Convention next month and continuing on to visit friends in South Carolina and Florida before visiting relatives in Indiana and then continuing home to Tucson. This will be the longest trip I've done in my motorhome, but I will have my laptop and phone with me.

As Liaison to the Altrusa International Foundation, I want to remind all District Eleven clubs that there are Grants available twice per year to support your club's service projects. The Grant Guideline and Application are available in English and (Google-translated) Spanish on the Foundation's website, foundation.altrusa.org. Cycle One deadline is September 15, 2023, and Grant Applications must be submitted electronically.

First Timer's Workshop

Hillary Sloan, Governor Elect

The 2023 First Timers Workshop was a breath of fresh air. Denis Gilb and I were very excited to assist club members in their first conference adventure. All Altrusa members who attended the workshop were given the First Timers Workshop power point that the previous Governor Elect Leslie Johnson created. The power point is very informative, and the members were grateful for the detailed information about Altrusa International and District Eleven. The First Timers participated in the District Eleven traditional scavenger hunt. The winner of the First Timers scavenger hunt was Raine Ross from the San Luis Obispo County club. The Santa Maria Club had the most First Timers at this conference. The workshop was a success.

Treasurers – The Green Stripe in our Rainbow!

The 2023 Treasurers Workshop was held May 16th by Zoom. It was a collaborative effort led by outgoing Treasurer, Betty Baran, assisted by incoming Treasurer, Andrea Shallcross. We covered the treasurer's calendar and general duties, financial responsibilities, and especially delved into the wonderful world of Group Tally! For those who attended, it was great to see your faces! The PowerPoint slides are a good treasurer's resource so if any of you would like a set, just shoot me an email and I'll send it to you. If you have any questions about your new role, or need assistance navigating the Group Tally site, just call me and we can walk through it together. I'm here to help YOU!

ALL-CONFERENCE SERVICE PROJECTS A HUGE SUCCESS!

Koni Shaff, 2nd Vice Governor
Co-Conference Chair

Big shout out to our AWESOME District Eleven clubs who generously donated children's books and panties for the two All-Conference service projects - THANK YOU for making a difference!

We collected over 300 books; 125 books have already been distributed to Del Mar Community Health Center in Oceano. The remaining books will be distributed to the clinic as needed, promoting literacy and getting books into the hands of children (infants up to age 17) ..."Reading to Succeed!"

Packages of panties in a variety of sizes/styles were collected and donated to three local Days for Girls teams. Three leaders attended our club installation and were thrilled with the donations, which will help them make more kits to distribute internationally as well as in the US. To quote one D4G leader "Our prayer is that ladies over all of God's land will have freedom when they receive kits... Altrusa is a blessing to many!"

LONG RANGE STRATEGIC PLANNING

Hillary Sloan, Governor Elect

Hillarysloan74@gmail.com

It is Time to Plan.... Then Act

Shauna Stokes, Leadership Chair

sstokes55@mac.com

'We have a strategic plan. It's called doing things.' Herb

Kelleher, co-founder of Southwest Airlines. That quote sums up what strategic planning leads to – doing things. Since Altrusans are doers, long-range strategic planning is something every club can do.

What is strategic planning?

Long-term strategic planning is a process to identify goals, the action plans necessary to accomplish those goals, and a way to monitor and evaluate progress. The idea is to assess what this club is, where the club is, where the club wants to go, and what are the club's priorities.

The strategic planning process leads to the development of a strategic plan document that serves as the club's roadmap. The essential elements of a strategic plan include:

- Clear mission and vision statements and branding
- Clear short-term and long-term goals and objectives
- Clear timelines for implementation and progress monitoring
- Measurements to track progress
- Identification of club members/committees responsible for each strategy

What is a mission statement, vision statement, and branding?

A mission statement is what the club is doing now, how the club does it, whom the club serves, and what this achieves. It can be two to three sentences and should be no more than 100 words.

Here is an example. "Since 1962, the Altrusa Int'l Foundation has demonstrated a strong and enduring commitment to serve communities here in the United States and abroad. We advance this commitment by supporting local Altrusans in their community efforts to provide care and enrichment to those most in need."

A vision statement is what the club hopes to be by doing its mission, what it stands for, and the beliefs through which it creates and carries out its goals. "Building better communities" could be considered Altrusa International's vision.

Branding is when a club makes itself known to the public and differentiates itself from other service organizations. Branding includes a phrase, design, or idea that makes a club easily identifiable to the public.

Altrusa's Logo is an example of branding, as is the phrase "Building better communities." For your own club's brand, consider what your club's identity and target audience are in your community.

A brand anchor is the brand's heart; it is what people associate your club with, your club's perceived "zone of competence." For example, Cosmopolitan, a women's magazine, got into the yogurt business once and failed because consumers did not associate "Cosmo" with yogurt. Yogurt was not part of its brand.

What are Goals and Objectives?

Goals and Objectives: The goals are tangible ways to fulfill the mission and progress toward the vision. The goals could be ways to improve the club and new initiatives the club wants to undertake in the community. Objectives are how the club would implement the goals.

Identify as many goals as possible or as many as the club would like to include in the strategy. Try to make the club goals realistic and measurable. Realistic goals make the long-term strategy more manageable, and measurable goals make the club's progress easier to track. The club's objectives are how they would implement a goal. For example, if the club's goal is to gain a more prominent social media following, two potential objectives are to post more often and on more social media platforms.

What is a Timeline?

A timeline determines when the club wants to start different tasks and when the club wants to complete specific goals. Be realistic and flexible with the timeline so the club has plenty of time to achieve the set goals, but the club can still adapt to reflect current realities. Collaborate with the club members to create a timeline that everyone thinks is doable and agreeable. A timeline helps hold the club accountable and helps get the work done on time. Leaders could assign each club member or committee different tasks so that everyone participates.

As the club completes the plan, remember to assess the results occasionally. Doing this can help determine if the plan is working or needs improvement. It is often valuable to track and assess the results to motivate the club members, especially when seeing positive results. The club can use that information to revise the plan and improve it.

In conclusion, strategic planning helps the club plan, act, achieve, dream, revise, reflect, be recognized, be leaders, and inspire the team! Eleanor Roosevelt said, "It takes as much energy to wish as it does to plan."

Hillary and Shauna are available to answer questions, provide templates and sample Strategic Plans as your club either puts together a new plan or updates your current one.

School Supply Tsunami

Danielle Robello, 1st Vice Governor

We finished our School Supply Tsunami project! Through your donations at our 2022 Conference and a project grant awarded by the Altrusa International Foundation, we donated over 1,200 school and art supplies valued at $4,900. Since we started our School Supply Tsunami project, a wave of new service projects has been initiated by various clubs in our District in support of the children rescued and sheltered by International Network of Hearts. Thank you, District Eleven members, for supporting the academic success and recovery of young survivors of human trafficking.

GROWING IN SERVICE

Margee Neer,
District Service Chair

As the Service Chair for the new District Eleven Biennium, I look forward to working with each of the clubs and hearing about your service projects. I have been so impressed and inspired by some of the projects I have already seen and would like to highlight some of these in future DSB publications. We also want to make sure we share some of these ideas in the International Service Database.

There are service projects at the International, District and Local Club level. The International Service Project/Partnership has been Days for Girls for many years and will continue at this time. Each club is encouraged to find some way to support the work of Days for Girls. We will be developing a district-wide project which will be something we can all contribute to as well. The clubs will hear more about this in the future. Most importantly, each club develops their own local and international service projects. Here's just a quick review of tips and resources when choosing and developing a new service project.

Tips:

1. Choose a project that one or more of the members are passionate about and inspire other members to be involved in.
2. Identify a need for the project in the community or through a community member.
3. Ensure that the project fits within the strategic plan.
4. Check that the club will have the financial, time and people resources to successfully carry out the project.
5. Choose a project that you can invite potential members or partners to be involved in or that you can partner with another organization on.

Resources:

The International Website has a Service Toolbox to help in identifying and setting up service projects. To get to this tool kit go to the international website: www.altrusa.org, then click on the three bars in the upper right and go to the member site. On the member site go to the Service area and then all the way to the bottom of that page. All clubs can benefit from completing the Community Assessment periodically. The other resource is the Altrusa Project Guide which gives every detail possible in planning for a new project. The Service page on the International Website has other resources as well with information on Days for Girls and Service Awards.

Chula Vista and 4 other clubs partnered to create 72 gift packages for children rescued from human trafficking.

Reno/Sparks hosted 2 outreaches to distribute needed products to 100+ Seniors partnering with the Reno Housing Authority and Black Wall Street.

ASTRA ELEMENTS FOR SUCCESS

Melinda Aguirre,
ASTRA Chair
melinda.aguirre84@yahoo.com

Starting an ASTRA Club in your area could be a fun start for your club. Instead of focusing on many service and literacy projects you can focus on your ASTRA Club. You would be working with the ASTRA Club Policies established by Altrusa International, but you must be prepared to be flexible in also following and establishing guidelines set by the school as long as they are not in conflict with the Bylaws and Policies of Altrusa International, Inc. An important factor to consider, if you are looking at starting a club in a school situation, is to have a contact person or advocate within the institution to guide and assist you through their system.

How important are high school clubs?

High school students participation in clubs can hone their communication skills, foster creative thinking, and teach them how to work effectively with other people. Their extracurricular involvement is one of the few ways that colleges can gain insights into their personality. Because extracurriculars can take a lot of time—and because their time in high school is precious—the student will want to be strategic about which clubs to join.

As you can see, a high school ASTRA Club can prove very consequential. If the student takes on increasing responsibility and achieves success, their extracurricular involvement will not only help them get into college—it could even help them pay for college! Ultimately, high school clubs are as important as you make them. If you have a yearning to start an ASTRA Club in your area and need help, contact me and I will be happy to guide you to a successful ASTRA Club! Hey, summer is a good time to start and prepare an ASTRA Club in your area.

Below is one of many projects from ASTRA Club of Righetti High from Santa Maria, Ca.

ASTRA CLUB OF RHS- Father's Day crafts was the theme for ASTRA Club of Righetti's, Saturday June 3rd event at the Orcutt Library. ASTRA volunteers Leah Angkahan, Lexi Cerillo, Nathan Freeland, Carolina Garcia, Emmy Hernandez, Erin Ramos, and Jenna Strother had a great time making cards, bookmarks, and magnets for Dad with the children! Advisors, Dayna Debernardi Watson, and Samantha Van Patten were on hand to help. ASTRA Club of Righetti has been holding this themed craft event once a month since 2012 for the kiddos that frequent the Orcutt Library.
