

JUROR/JUDGE

LYNN PONTO-PETERSON

Lynn Ponto-Peterson was born in Union, IL, a suburb of Chicago. She received her BFA from Illinois Wesleyan University. Lynn worked as an illustrator and then graphic designer until 2000, when she took the leap into a dream and became a full time artist. She has won numerous awards in art as well as photography, exhibiting miniature fine art and garnishing awards as well as a best in show at two of the largest and most prestigious international events. Lynn was invited to participate in the International Miniature Fine Art exhibit in Moscow, Russia. She has been invited the past two years to participate in Gallery One's Masters in Miniature show. She has entered the prestigious Art Renewal Center's annual salon show the past three years and has been a finalist each year. Her work has been published on book covers and in publications such as American Art Collector's magazine where her art was featured in the 2009 miniature edition. She has done photography, magazine ad design and countless commissions for the equine industry where she was a very active equestrian and Morgan horse breeder.

Her work is collected in many private collections internationally. Lynn currently resides in the beautiful Ozark Mountains of Arkansas but is relocating to the Carolinas where she plans to build a dedicated studio space.

SHIPPING INSTRUCTIONS

Please pack art in a sturdy corrugated box, allowing for plenty of room for packing material (Styrofoam pellets, balled-up newspaper, etc.) Never use a box that is exactly the size of the art. It is better to have a box too large than too small. Art is returned in this same box that it arrives in.

In box with art place your entry fees; return postage fees (no postage stamps accepted & if you include your return label for UPS make sure it is filled out correctly, (no prepaid FEDEX return labels accepted), inventory of art and any extra return instructions. If you are a new artist, please include biography, also legible email address, we will use email to confirm arrival of art and assign inventory numbers whenever possible.

FOREIGN ENTRIES

MUST INCLUDE required entry fees plus paid return postage and handling of $25.00 USD. In the event artwork is sold, a refund check for the shipping fees will be issued. Payment in the form of PayPal, credit card or international money order is the preferred payment methods.

*Please include instructions for duty free returns of your artwork, unless you want it shipped to an alternative USA address.
