

PHILANTHROPY ACADEMY

CAMP INNOVATION PATHWAYS TO COLLEGE PROGRAM

GRADES 3-8

SPRING 2019

PHILANTHROPY ACADEMY

Saturday, April 27, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM

NKU's Camp Innovation Philanthropy Academy for students in grades 3-8 is filled with intensive and interactive experiential learning focused on developing the positive dispositions to be young philanthropists. Students will discover the power and excitement of making a difference in our community.

The Philanthropy Academy program is designed to allow students to explore philanthropy with their peers by engaging with representatives from local non-profit organizations, participating in community service, awarding a grant to a local non-profit organization, and developing valuable leadership and decision-making skills.

DATE AND LOCATION

- Camp Innovation Philanthropy Academy will be held Saturday, April 27
- The Academy will take place from 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM at Northern Kentucky University

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION:

Camp Innovation Philanthropy Academy provides students an in-depth educational experience diving into the business and commitment of local non-profits and foundations. We will explore the global greater good provided through philanthropic organizations in our community.

NKU's Philanthropy Academy will provide an opportunity to discover the T's of philanthropy (time, treasure, and talent) while looking at ways they can invest in and positively impact our community. You don't want to miss this opportunity to develop your leadership and communication skills while giving back to our community! Through learning to use the T's of philanthropy (time, treasure, and talent), you can be the philanthropic leader of today and our future.
