The healthcare environment is fast-paced, dynamic, ever-changing and global. It's both exciting and exhausting. And it is rapidly evolving through innovation, myriad federal incentives and technological advancements, to name a few. For these reasons, healthcare leaders must embrace lifelong learning by creating and maintaining a continuing professional development plan. This seminar will discuss how by doing so, leaders can be assured that they will have the professional competencies they need to advance initiatives that positively impact patient care.

Learning Objectives

- Identify the components of a continuing professional development plan for career success.
- Gain strategies for developing a career plan that embraces continuing professional development.
