

MIKVEH VOLUNTEERS TRAINING PROGRAM

TAUGHT BY RABBI LAUREN BERKUN

This course will prepare volunteers to serve as mikveh guides for a variety of life transitions and celebrations, including weddings, healing ceremonies, conversions, and more. In this 5-part series, we will learn about the theology and rituals of the mikveh. We will also explore the sacred role of volunteer mikveh guide to help people mark meaningful and transformative life moments. You must commit to the full series to participate and receive your Mikveh Guide Certificate.

Historical and Theological Meaning of the Mikveh
Thursday April 16th - 6:00pm to 7:30pm

Traditional and Modern Mikveh Rituals
Thursday April 23rd - 6:00pm to 7:30pm

Preparing to Be a Guide
Thursday April 30th - 6:00pm to 7:30pm

Facilitating Spiritual Experiences
Thursday May 7th - 6:00pm to 7:30pm

Concluding Retreat: Practicing the Role of Guide and Experiencing Mikveh Immersion for Yourself
Sunday May 31st - 1:00pm to 3:30pm

www.atjc.org/form/mtp

This program is sponsored by

