HUG Camp July 5-10, completed 4th-11th grades, $550

Directors: Carol Currier-Frighetto and Donna Boyko HUG Camp is a place where God Helps Us Grow memories and friendships that lasts FOREVER! In addition to growing our relationships with God, nature, and each other, campers choose from a variety of terrific activities each day. Double the fun by bringing a friend!

HUG Tenderfoot July 8-10, completed K-3rd grade, $330

Director: Tom March HUG Tenderfoot gives younger campers the opportunity to experience camp in an abbreviated timeframe that is suited for their age group! Participants are excited to meet new friends and interact in a very welcoming environment!

Godstock Camp July 19-24, completed 3rd-9th grade, $550

Directors: Jamie Kirscher and Theresa Graben Godstock is a week-long camp where youth can make life-long friendships while connecting with nature and their faith. Campers enjoy engaging in whole camp, age group and choice activities including campfires, sports and games, beach time, archery, worship, and much more.

Godstock Tenderfoot, July 22-24, completed K-3rd grade, $330

Directors: Cindy and Allen White Campers will engage in activities both with and separate from the larger Godstock campers which will provide a fun and exciting experience for our younger campers. Activities include crafts, games, beach time, worship and much more!

Creation Care Camp, August 3-6, $300/person

Director: Rev. David Russell Parents, grandparents, aunties, uncles, caregivers and the children in their lives are invited to come together to immerse themselves and play in Creation while learning how to serve as the Land Defenders & Water Protectors God's Creation needs at this time. We will explore Creation Care through the lens of water, especially Lake Michigan & its watershed. But this is summer camp so we will also play & swim at the beach, enjoy bonfires, stargaze & savor S'mores!

Brush Harbor Retreat for Clergy of Color, October 1-3, $250/person

Retreat Leader: Eyvette Jones-Johnson as Clergy, you constantly pour into others; our job is to pour into you. Come to connect deeply with your peers surrounded by the healing power of nature. Learn, write, release, and laugh out loud! Give yourself the gift of renewal and remembrance.
