

A WATERSHED MOMENT:

Knowing local water as kin in God's abundance

GREAT LAKES CREATION COLLABORATIVE RETREAT

A partnership of the United Church of Christ and the United Church of Canada

Tower Hill Camp & Retreat Center, Sawyer, Michigan

Sunday, August 24 to Tuesday, August 26

Single occupancy: $235 (is limited, going to first registrants)

Shared occupancy: $185

Send registration to Wisconsin Conference UCC, W1000 Spring Grove Road, Ripon, WI 54971; Memo Line: Watershed Retreat

Registration:

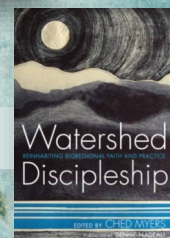

<https://onrealm.org/wcucc/PublicRegistrations/Event?linkString=ZTRjMmE2OWEtOTUyZC00ZjRkLWI5YzgtYjJhYzAxMTFiNzQw>

Keynoter: Ched Myers

Ched is an activist theologian who has worked in social change and radical discipleship movements for more than 45 years. With a degree in New Testament Studies, he is a popular educator who animates scripture and its relationship to issues of faith-based peace and justice. He is the editor of Watershed Discipleship and the author of the recently released book, Affluenza and Resisting Plutocracy: Luke's Jesus and Sabbath Economics

Suggested reading to prepare for our time together, Water Discipleship

A RETREAT TO ANIMATE THE CHURCH FOR ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE