Reaching Out and Engaging With You

Note: All underlined blue words or phrases are clickable links.

Happy May to all of you who make up our Lifelong Learning Community!

Wow how this semester is just flying by! We have already hosted more than 95 courses and events in-person and via Zoom and filled 1434 seats in 210 class sessions. A special thank you to all our dedicated presenters, class assistants, Zoom moderators, volunteer trainers, and each of you who participate in these courses to bring true value to our vision of accessible and engaging peer learning opportunities.

In the month of April, we participated in the university-wide fundraising opportunity, the (603) Challenge. This is OLLI's third year participating in this exciting week-long event! Thanks to all of you who joined us in giving to OLLI during this week we exceeded our goal of 100 donors – unlocking the $2,500 bonus match challenge from the OLLI Leadership Council and Administrative Team and raised over $10,000! The final numbers are still being totaled, including additional match dollars that will make each of these gifts stretch even further to support OLLI at UNH.

A special thank you goes out to all of those whose donations have been received and calculated thus far. Click here for the full list of donors.

If you were unable to participate in the (603) Challenge during last month, you can always support OLLI at UNH by clicking here, sending in a check or visiting our website.

I look forward to wrapping up another wonderful semester with you all over the next six weeks! Thank you for being a vital part of our learning community.

Warm Regards,
Toniann

Boston Symphony Orchestra Open Rehearsal and Maparium

A trip to the Boston Symphony Orchestra Open Rehearsal is a long-standing favorite tradition for our OLLI day trips. The Travel Committee schedules day trips way in advance and for the symphony, before the schedule for the performance is known.

This year, as the details fell into place, we discovered we would be enjoying the performances of a guest conductor, Dima Slobodeniouk, born in Russia but spending most of his life in Finland, who has worked with the world's foremost orchestras AND the renowned violin soloist, Frank Peter Zimmerman from Germany. Zimmerman is widely regarded as one of the most important violinists of his generation.

He is known, not only for his exceptional talent, but also for enjoying the privilege of playing a Stradivarius violin constructed in 1711. Known as the "Lady Inchiquin," the violin was on a long-term loan to Zimmerman from the German West LB bank. Zimmerman commented once that the violin "feels like part of my body . . . it has altered my musical ideas and how I play . . . it has a really rich sound that projects well." Valued at over 6 million US dollars, the Stradivarius was recalled in 2015 when the bank failed. This was a difficult, almost unendurable setback but reversed in 2016 when the German government purchased the violin and negotiated a long-term lease with Zimmerman.

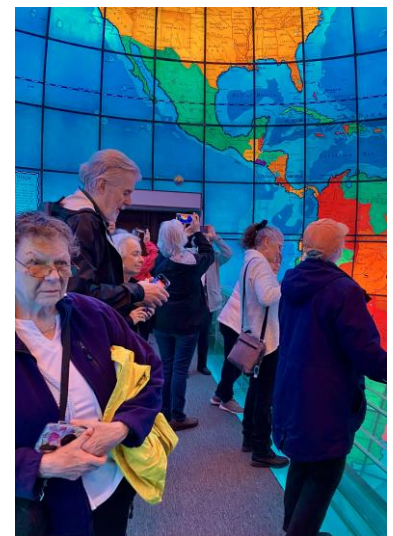

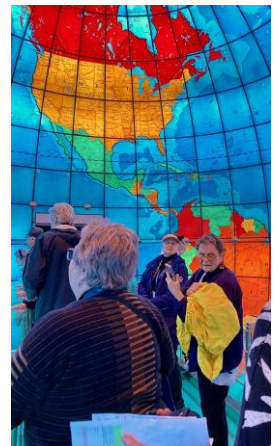

Having shared this story with our travelers, Peg Fargo, one of the trip coordinators, called a contact at the BSO to inquire about the presence of the Stradivarius at the rehearsal and was met with an incredulous, "Peg, I can't reveal that!" (Security, of course, at every level!!)

Symphony Hall on April 3 was filled with The Boston Symphony's incredible music as everyone awaited the introduction of Zimmerman and the performance of Elgar's Violin concerto in B minor, Opus 61. Following intermission, Zimmerman made his appearance. Sporting the casual clothing normal for a rehearsal and completely comfortable on stage, he looked like a neighbor from down the street.

He turned first to the orchestra, bowed to them, spoke to them and then turned to the audience and conductor. He placed the violin under his chin, and yes! it was the Stradivarius! With the first pure, clear notes, the audience knew we were sharing an amazing musical experience and that the sounds of this OLLI adventure would remain with us for a long time.

While April Showered, OLLI Did This

On the Seacoast, beautifully-outfitted members enjoyed tea, learning and each other at the Silver Fountain Inn and Tea Parlor.

Members in the MWV learning region recently attended our "Icelandic Knit Sweater Design for Experienced Knitters" with presenter Cynthia Williams. Some of the projects still need a little more work, but wow!

Below, members visited the Exeter Public Library for "Lunch & Learn: Graphic Novels: Past and Future" with presenters Martha Walsh and Julia Lanter. Attendees learned the history and science behind the importance of imagery and the written word. They also heard about the current graphic novel boom in publishing and went home with a great reading list (just in time for summer reading!).

Fresh Reads - Seacoast

Submitted by John Russell

The May Fresh Reads selection is The Sum of Us by Heather McGhee, published in 2021. McGhee's specialty is the American economy—and the mystery of why it so often fails the American public. From the financial crisis of 2008 to rising student debt to collapsing public infrastructure, she found a root problem: racism in our politics and policymaking. But not just in the most obvious indignities for people of color, racism has costs for white people, too. It is the common denominator of our most vexing public problems, the core dysfunction of our democracy and constitutive of the spiritual and moral crises that grip us all. But how did this happen? And is there a way out?

McGhee embarks on a deeply personal journey across the country tallying what we lose when we buy into the zero-sum paradigm—the idea that progress for some of us must come at the expense of others. Along the way, she meets white people who confide in her about losing their homes, their dreams and their shot at better jobs to the toxic mix of American racism and greed. This is the story of how public goods in this country—from parks and pools to functioning schools—have become private luxuries; of how unions collapsed, wages stagnated and inequality increased, and of how this country, unique among the world's advanced economies, has thwarted universal healthcare.

The Sum of Us is not only a brilliant analysis of how we arrived here but also a heartfelt message, delivered with empathy, from a black woman to a multiracial America. It leaves us with a new vision for a future in which we finally realize that life can be more than a zero-sum game.

Then join us via Zoom on Monday, May 19 at 1:30 p.m. to discuss our roots. To request a Zoom link, contact John Russell at russelljohnt@comcast.net.

Concord Area Healthy Walkers

Submitted by Ray Mercier

"Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds" might be the credo of the U.S. Postal Service, but it also serves, the Healthy Walking SIG from Capital Region. SIG leader Ray Mercier's personal motto is "there is no bad weather, only bad clothing" led the colorfully attired hikers through Manchester's Cedar Swamp Preserve. The smiling faces completely belied the raw, rainy morning.

As the Walkers emerge from their winter hibernation, they are developing their schedule to include a walk every two weeks alternating Thursdays and Fridays to accommodate as many schedules as possible.

The next two walks are planned for Friday, May 9 at the Jim Hill Riverwalk in Concord and Thursday, May 22 at a location to be determined.

Jim Hill Riverwalk is a fairly flat walk of 2½ miles. We walk slowly, and there is a shortcut that can make the walk about half that distance if some want a shorter version. Click here for a trail map.

For more information contact Ray Mercier at mercier.raymond@gmail.com or by calling at (603) 831-3083.

Seacoast Walking/Hiking SIG

Submitted by Sandy O'Neill

The Seacoast Hiking/Walking SIG will meet on Monday, May 12 at 10:00 a.m. at Northwood Meadows State Park in Northwood, NH. Click here for information: NH State Parks - Northwood Meadows State Park.

This link is to the trail map: Northwood-Area-Land-Management-Collaborative-Trail-Map.pdf. We will hike the Huckins Orchard Trail and the Lake Trail. The hike is about three miles of rolling terrain with some rocks and roots. One should be steady on his/her feet to hike this trail. Sturdy shoes and hiking poles are helpful.

When some of our hikes take us close to eating establishments, the group sometimes takes advantage and eats together after the hike. Cooper Hill Restaurant in Northwood (Cooper Hill Pizzeria - Restaurant & Sports Bar - Northwood, NH) will be where some of us will choose to have lunch.

John Russell, Dennis Daggett, Coleen Smead, Joyce Tugel, Sandy O'Neill

Consider joining us for the hike and if you are not on the email list, please contact me at sandy\_oneill@comcast.net to be added. Reminders are sent out and, if there is a cancellation, the members on the list will be notified.

Co-Chair's Chat

Submitted by Su Bennett, Co-Chair

I am honored that our Director, Toniann Leavitt, invited me to attend the OLLI National Conference this year – April 28-30 in Chantilly, Virginia. As I write this, we are on a break near the end of Day 2. There are about 250 people here, half of them staff like Toniann and half volunteers like me.

The energy is totally amazing. Everyone is so welcoming and wants to share and learn from each other. Learn about what, you ask?

Here are some of the topics:

- 🕒 Membership Retention
- 🕒 Navigating the Higher Ed Landscape
- 🕒 Working With Your Local AARP
- 🕒 Community Collaborations
- 🕒 Finding Sponsorships for Your OLLI
- 🕒 Maximizing Member Engagement in Hybrid Classes
- 🕒 Leveraging Fundraising for a Meaningful Impact
- 🕒 Benefiting from Generative AI at Your OLLI
- 🕒 Broadening Our Definition of Diversity
- 🕒 Data Speak, But What Do They Tell You?
- 🕒 Promoting Your OLLI: Public Relations and Marketing Communication Strategies
- 🕒 Generational Preferences in Community, Learning, and Communication
- 🕒 Learning through Service: Engaging Lifelong Learners
- 🕒 Future Trends in Lifelong Learning: How OLLIs can Prepare-The world is changing..

We are attending and listening as much as we can to bring back ideas and learnings. We are also sharing about our OLLI at UNH.

My biggest takeaway is that there are 123 other OLLIs out there oh-so-willing and engaging who want to develop and grow vibrant learning communities.

AND we got to meet Bernard Osher, the philanthropist and amazing founder of OLLI, who will turn 98 this year.

Leadership Council meetings are generally held on the Zoom platform on the fourth Monday of the month from 10:00 a.m. to noon, giving members the opportunity to observe our governance structure firsthand. The next meeting will be Monday, May 19 (note change from normal schedule.) All members are welcome. Contact John Russell, at russelljohnt@comcast.net for information or a Zoom link.
