OLLI at UNH: April Showers Bring Opportunities to Give Back!

As we welcome spring and all the growth it brings, April is the perfect time to celebrate the spirit of giving that keeps OLLI at UNH blooming. This month, we're excited to participate in the 603 Challenge and remember to thank our volunteers for all they do to impact our learning community so positively.

Support OLLI During the 603 Challenge April 8-11, 2025

We're thrilled once again to be part of the 603 Challenge, the University of New Hampshire's annual online fundraising event. This is your chance to show your love for OLLI and help us continue offering outstanding lifelong learning opportunities for adults across New Hampshire.

Last year, your generosity helped us surpass our fundraising goals—and this year, we hope to do it again! Every gift, no matter the size, helps support our volunteer-driven programs, enriches our course offerings, and strengthens our community.

Keep an eye on your inbox and our social media pages for updates, challenge goals, and real-time progress throughout the event.

How You Can Help:

- Mark your calendar: April 8-11, 2025
- Click here to donate early and help up meet our goal of 100 individual donors to unlock a $2500 match from your OLLI Leadership Council and Administrative Team
- Encourage friends, classmates, and family to join in—every donor counts toward unlocking bonus funds and matching gifts!

Looking Ahead to National Volunteer Week April 20-26, 2025

We wouldn't be OLLI without the dedication and passion of our incredible volunteers. From curriculum committees to class assistants, from presenters to central committee members—you are the heartbeat of our organization.

If you've been thinking about getting more involved, now's a great time to reach out! Whether you're interested in teaching, helping with events, or joining a committee, there's a place for you here.

Thank You for Being Part of OLLI at UNH

April is a reminder of the power of community, generosity, and growth. Thank you for all you do to support OLLI at UNH. Let's make this a month to remember!

A sampling of UNH entertainment and educational offerings open to OLLI members can be found here. Each requires registration; click the button for full information and registration.

Optimize Your Health Journey with Smart Tech for Older Adults!

Friday, April 25, noon – on Zoom -- Free

Discover how technology can transform your health and wellness! In this interactive session, we'll explore practical tools like AI assistants, wearables, and smart devices—many of which you might already own—that simplify health management, improve safety, and support healthy living. Learn about apps for medication reminders, telehealth platforms, and fitness trackers, as well as tips to stay secure online. Whether you're tech-savvy or a beginner, this class will give you easy-to-follow guidance and resources to help you embrace the power of technology for a healthier, more connected life.

Presented by Mark Glisson of the Hooksett Library

Rescheduled from March 28

To register, email Jacki Fogarty at JGFogarty228@aol.com.

Graphic Novels Past and Future

Wednesday, April 23, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Exeter Public Library – FREE!

Join Martha Walsh, OLLI member, and Julia Lanter, ALA NH Councilor and Exeter Public Library Director for a Lunch & Learn session on the history and science behind the importance of imagery and the written word. Learn about the current graphic novel boom in publishing and leave with a great reading list!

If you are unfamiliar with the term "graphic novel," it is described by Wikipedia as "... a narrative work in which the story is conveyed to the reader using sequential art in either an experimental design or in a traditional comics format. The term is employed broadly, encompassing non-fiction works and thematically linked short stories as well as fictional stories across genres."

All OLLI members are welcome; bring a nonmember friend! Bring a bag lunch; dessert provided.

Register online or call the OLLI at UNH office at (603) 255-3553 to register over the phone – required to register nonmembers. Please register by Monday, April 21.

Capital Region Lunch Bunch Coming out of winter hibernation - again

Wednesday, April 9

Noon

Common Man Restaurant

1 Gulf Street, Concord

RSVP to Jean Russell at j6russ@aol.com

OLLI on the March . . . in March

The Drumroll, Please course at Manchester Community Music School seems to have offered one OLLI member a new gig!

Believe it or not, at right, these are the product of a beginner course in Painting Ukrainian Eggs (or of psychedelic hen feed in the North Country.)

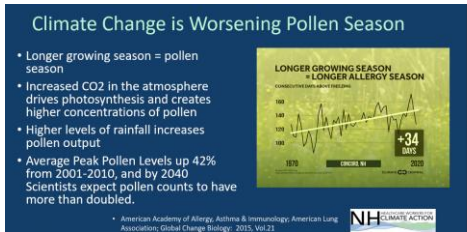

In the Capital Region, another flock of cardinal barn quilts takes flight under the tutelage of Mari Astell.

At left, exhibit #1 highlighted the Pet Rescue course taught by Rianna Lane in Mt. Washington Valley

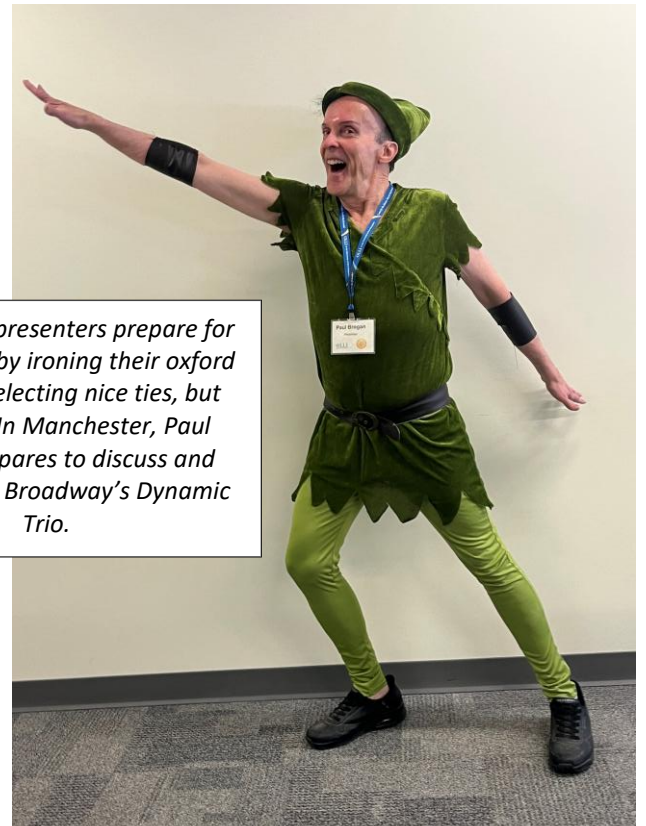

Among the unwelcome news provided in Dr. Deborah Gerson's Zoom class on The Impact of Climate Change on Health. Also presented was a hopeful look at what the future could hold if we act.

Members of all faiths and interests gathered in Manchester for a discussion class on the Value of Interfaith Dialog presented by Rabbi Jon Spira-Savett

Some of our presenters prepare for their classes by ironing their oxford shirts and selecting nice ties, but others . . . In Manchester, Paul Brogan prepares to discuss and impersonate Broadway's Dynamic Trio.

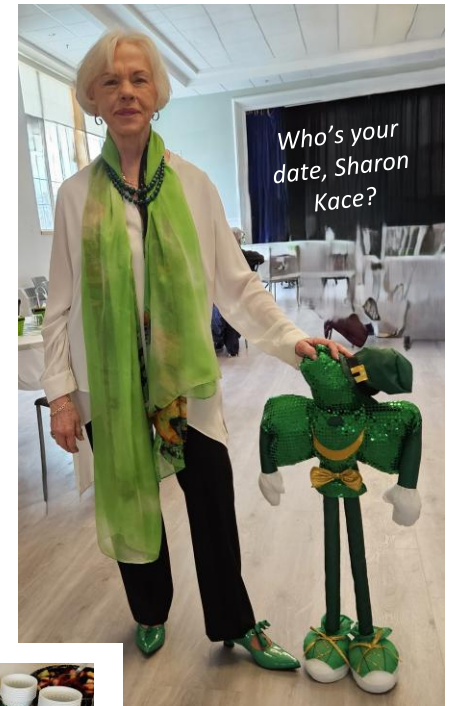

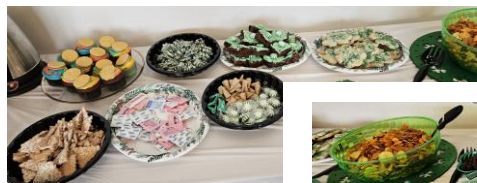

Some Marched to Different Drummers

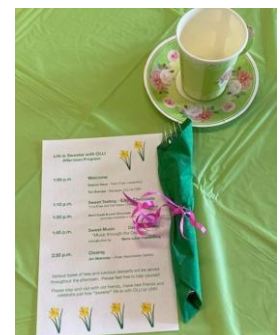

In Concord, the “drummers” had a bass mini-cello and guitar and entertained under the name of Naughty & Nice. And, while they were very nice, they offered more than a little naughtiness to the delight of all.

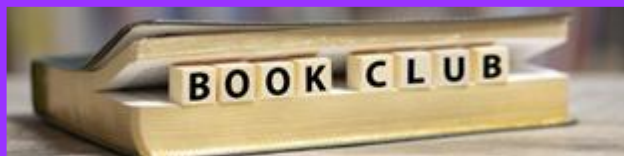

The food was pretty green (other than the rainbow frosted cupcakes with the gold oreo coin) and the drinks were green tea and Green Mountain coffee.

Irish proverb guessing, a few good stories and some truly terrible Irish jokes rounded out an afternoon of feeling lucky about being in OLLI.

A week later, OLLI marched from LUCKY to SWEET and from Concord to Manchester. Fresh flowers dressed the tables where elegant place settings held sweets and tea as members enjoyed each other's company and a two-part program. It started with a chocolate tasting provided by Rachel Mack of Loon Chocolates and proceeded to a musical presentation by David Polansky. This particular “drummer” played the electric keyboard and trumpet, sang a variety of “oldies” and entertained the audience with amusing stories.

Capital Region Chapter Chats

Submitted by Mary Davies

Meetings are held the last Monday of the month at 1:30 p.m. via Zoom. To receive the Zoom link contact Donna Frost at dfrost49@hotmail.com.

For its April 28 meeting, Chapter Chats is reading The Kitchen Front by Jennifer Ryan. This work of historical fiction takes place during WWII. Four very different women enter a cooking contest vying for an opportunity to be co-host of a radio program called "The Kitchen Front." They are to prepare three courses using the scarce and rationed foods available.

Books for May through July:

- May 19 - Katherine's Remarkable Road Trip by Gail Olmsted (meeting early due to Memorial Day)
- June 30 - The Only Woman in the Room by Marie Benedict
- July 28 - The Frozen River by Ariel Lawthorn

There's no requirement to finish or even read the book before the meetings. Readers residing anywhere are welcome to join us by Zoom on Monday, April 28, starting at 1:30 p.m. Try us out!

Manchester Book Club

Submitted by Mike Baker

The Manchester Book Group will meet on Tuesday, April 22 at 7:00 p.m. to discuss The Wager by David Grann.

For a Zoom link contact Mike Baker at mbmikebaker0@gmail.com.

Fresh Reads - Seacoast

Submitted by John Russell

The April Fresh Reads selection is Who is the Government? edited by Michael Lewis. Who works for the government and why their work matters gives us an urgent and absorbing civics lesson from an all-star team of writers and storytellers.

The government is a vast, complex system that Americans pay for, rebel against, rely upon, dismiss, and celebrate. It's also our shared resource for addressing the biggest problems of society. And it's made up of people, mostly unrecognized and uncelebrated, doing work that can be deeply consequential and beneficial to everyone.

Michael Lewis invited his favorite writers to find people doing interesting jobs for the government and write about them in a special in-depth series for The Washington Post. The stories they found are unexpected, riveting and inspiring, including a former coal miner devoted to making mine roofs less likely to collapse, saving thousands of lives; an IRS agent straight out of a crime thriller, and the manager who made the National Cemetery Administration the best-run organization, public or private, in the entire country. Each essay shines a spotlight on the essential behind-the-scenes work of exemplary federal employees.

Whether they're digitizing archives, chasing down cyber criminals, or discovering new planets, these public servants are committed to their work and universally reluctant to take credit. Expanding on the Washington Post series, the vivid profiles in Who Is Government? blow up the stereotype of the irrelevant bureaucrat. They show how the essential business of government makes our lives possible, and how much it matters.

Then join us via Zoom on Monday, April 21 at 1:30 p.m. to discuss our roots. To request a Zoom link, contact John Russell at russelljohnt@comcast.net.

Concord Area Healthy Walkers

Submitted by Ray Mercier

One sure sign of spring is when a bear carries off your bird feeder. Another is when the OLLI Concord Area Healthy Walkers start their hikes. This year's first hike is at the Manchester Cedar Swamp Preserve.

This easy all-access trail is just over a mile total and is quite scenic. The date is April 11 at 10:00 a.m.

For more information contact Ray Mercier at mercier.raymond@gmail.com or by calling at (603) 831-3083. See the beauty of a Cedar swamp before black fly season. So nice, you might walk it twice!

Seacoast Walking/Hiking SIG

Submitted by Sandy O'Neill

The Seacoast Hiking/Walking SIG will hike the Gonic Trails at 71 Rochester Neck Road in Rochester on April 9 from 10:00-11:30 a.m.

The trails run next to the Isinglass River and are managed by Waste Management. The trails are well traveled with rolling hills and flat stretches and have a good-sized parking lot, which is about a half mile up on the right side of Rochester Neck Road which is easily accessible from Route 125 and the Spaulding Turnpike.

Check out the trail brochure at Trail Map2.pub \(rochesternh.net\)). If you have questions about this hike or if you would like to be added to the email list, contact Sandy O'Neill at sandy_oneill@comcast.net.

Co-Chair's Chat

Submitted by Bob Muzerall, Co-Chair

As I write this chat, I celebrate the first day of spring. Not too long ago I celebrated the first day of winter. I imagined skiing down alpine slopes and trudging through a peaceful hiking trail with snowshoes or spikes. Now I'm ready to put my winter gear away and get the shorts and T-shirts ready.

Regardless of the season, our OLLI is still there, offering stimulating courses and providing opportunities to meet old friends and make new ones. As a volunteer for OLLI, I sometimes get busy and wish I could just sit back and enjoy, rather than help organize and follow up on myriad details. I guess this is normal.

If I did "sit back and enjoy," I'd miss that extra something I get from volunteering at OLLI, the part that makes me feel like I'm working on something important that helps many. This wonderful feeling comes from my commitment to the three principles of my life, to provide my time, talent, and treasure to things I love. Each of these three areas requires effort. I'm currently juggling my time between OLLI, my family and close friends.

Keep on Zooming!

Submitted by Tessa McDonnell, Zoom Coordinator

We are excited to have many Zoom courses scheduled this term. We are currently looking for volunteers that have an interest in supporting our virtual classes. OLLI welcomes your skills, talents, and expertise!

An OLLI Zoom moderator is a volunteer who hosts courses offered via Zoom. The primary function is to support presenters and manage participation by members. Qualifications include a comfort level with email, an interest in learning and using the Zoom platform, and a willingness to experiment with online learning. A computer with a camera and a microphone and a strong internet connection is necessary.

Training on how to manage Zoom classes and the steps involved in hosting will be held on Monday, April 14 at 3:30 PM. If you are interested in finding out more, sign up by emailing tessa.mcdonnell@unh.edu.

Ready to learn Zoom for the fun of it?

As far as talent is concerned (I sometimes wonder why I think I have talent), I try hard to insure what I say and do helps. The treasure part is always a bit tricky. There are so many organizations that deserve a financial helping hand. How to decide? Lately I've narrowed down my list of those organizations that I support. OLLI will always remain one of them.

As our world moves on, costs are rising. The cost of food, utilities, gasoline, etc., keeps climbing. We all struggle with this. But I will not forsake OLLI. I commit my TIME, my TALENT, and a bit of my TREASURE to keeping our wonderful organization running. Are you with me on this? Let's work together to continue providing the best opportunities for lifelong learning.

Leadership Council meetings are generally held on the Zoom platform on the fourth Monday of the month from 10:00 a.m. to noon, giving members the opportunity to observe our governance structure firsthand. The next meeting will be Monday, April 21 (note change from normal schedule.) All members are welcome. Contact John Russell, at russelljohnt@comcast.net for information or a Zoom link.

OLLI Evening Courses

Did you know OLLI has four remaining evening courses scheduled this year? If you have friends who work days and might enjoy an OLLI course that meets after the workday, check these out:

- 4/21 Dreams & Nightmares: Surrealist Art (Zoom)
- 4/22 Ticket to Ride: A Streetcar Named Desire & Picnic (Concord)
- 4/28 Lost Covered Bridges of the Seacoast (Seacoast)
- 4/30 Fire Safety: At Home & for Travel (Concord)
