Director's Notes

Reaching Out and Engaging With You

Submitted by Toniann Leavitt, Program Director

Note: All underlined blue words or phrases are clickable links.

The fall semester is off to an exciting start! We've launched a fantastic lineup of courses and fresh social activities. Our courses are happening via Zoom, out in the community and across some of our other amazing venues statewide.

While some of our courses are currently full, many courses still have open seats and plenty of time to register. Now is the perfect time to explore something new—after all, OLLI is all about learning for the joy of it! Consider sharing the OLLI course catalog with friends and inviting them to join you in a class.

We're also thrilled to welcome new members who are experiencing OLLI for the first time! If you spot someone with a Class of 2024 name badge, please give them a warm welcome to our learning community.

Our volunteer leaders are working tirelessly, and believe it or not, we're already starting to collect course proposals for Spring 2025! If you're interested in submitting a course or know someone who would make a great presenter, please click here. For more details, contact our Program Manager, Tori Berube, at tori.berube@unh.edu.

This month marks three years since I moved to the Granite State and joined this vibrant and growing program. It's been a pleasure, and I'm excited for another year of collaboration with UNH as we continue to advance our program and focus on growth and sustainability.

Next month we will publish a special printed edition of Outlook celebrating our 20th Anniversary! Look for it in your mailbox, featuring unusual photos, articles, and special notes from those who have helped build our learning community since 2004.

I will be on maternity leave starting early November as our family welcomes a new addition. I look forward to reconnecting with you at the end of January.

Wishing you a wonderful semester and a joyful holiday season!

Warm regards,
Toniann

The Beginning of an Era at UNH-Manchester

Mike Morin did it first. The first class held in the new OLLI classrooms, New England's Quirky Sport Whose Television Ratings Topped Yaz, Bird & Orr, received solid positive reviews for the presentation and for the facility. And what was the quirky sport? Candlepin bowling!

Lunch, Learn, Listen and Laugh

Wednesday, October 16 – Noon

The Rail at La Stazione

400 High Street, Somersworth

This new restaurant is the dream-come-to-life of a man who grew up in the family construction business but always wanted to create what he considered the best kind of place: serving good food, the joy of trying new things, friendly and knowledgeable service and a room just the right size. Choose your entree and then sit back and relax as appetizers are brought to each table and the owner joins us to talk about the adventure – and reality – of creating your dream when you know more about carpentry than cooking ten different things at the same time. Joe Pelich took the gamble and he created something very good indeed. He is offering OLLI the whole 48-seat restaurant so come and enjoy this unique opportunity!

For more information visit the restaurant's website

RSVP by October 8 to Pat Nicolino at pfnico07@gmail.com or phone/text (508) 277-7731.

Parking in the Cities

Almost one-third of our courses this term are held in the two primary facilities in our largest cities, Concord (New Hampshire Technical Institute) and Manchester (UNH-Manchester). Both have specific requirements which are strictly enforced. If you are attending classes at either facility, please be sure you are familiar with the following.

MANCHESTER: Click here for a map of the campus that will help you understand where to park. To park for courses, meetings and events, you will use the UNH parking lot to the right of the building. This lot is highlighted in green and labeled "OLLI Member Parking" on the map.

There is a second green highlighted lot at the back of the building labeled "Overflow Parking." Please note, if you park in this lot you will have to walk around to the front of the building as there is no direct access in the back. You should know this walk includes an incline.

You must display a specific parking pass on the dashboard of your car. If you have already registered for a course on the Manchester campus, you've had a chance to pick up your passes. If you don't have your pass(es) arrive 30 minutes early, park in the visitor area and pick up your pass in room 318. Return to your car, place the pass on the dashboard and park in the appropriate lot. You may receive a pass by email for events which you may print out or pick up your pass in the office. Note that passes will include the date and the name of the class or event; you must use the proper pass.

When you get to the front door, please ring the doorbell and you will be buzzed into the building by security. All fall courses will be on the third floor in rooms 325 and 329.

CONCORD: Click here for a map of the NHTI campus. Plan to park in any available parking space in the A, B, or C lots (C is closest to the entrance of Sweeney Hall, marked with a 1). The entry to Lot C is directly across from a wooden gazebo. If you need handicap parking, continue to the next lot right in front of Sweeney Hall, unmarked on the map, which is all handicap parking. There are also some handicap spaces in Lot C. Classes are generally in Room 311.

This close-up version of the map focuses on the areas of greatest interest to you.

→ Sweeney Hall entrance.

→ Handicap Lot

→ Entrance to Lot C

You will receive specific information about parking at all other venues from your Class Assistant unless, of course, it is obvious (e.g., library parking lot).

Older, wiser and still yearning for knowledge . . .

Sound like anybody you know?
Oh yeah! That's us!

The story in The Union Leader opens with: WHILE SOME kids might dread the first day of school, there were no first-day jitters in this crowd.

It then goes on to highlight the first class held in the UNH-Manchester building, Mike Morin's discussion of candlepin bowling on Channel 5, followed by full information about OLLI at UNH, its Fall Term and turning 20.

Is Sleep the Key to Healthy Aging?

Dr. Adam P. Spira

Wednesday, September 18,

1:00 - 2:00 p.m. ET

Zoom option available.

Register at <https://wvusph-olli.augusoft.net/>

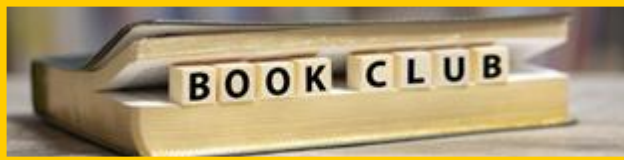

Sleep disturbances are common as people get older, and a growing number of studies indicate that they are linked to a greater risk of poor health outcomes, including cognitive and functional decline, and even Alzheimer's disease. Dr. Spira will discuss research in these areas and the implications of good sleep for healthy aging.

Adam Spira is Professor and Vice Chair for Research and Faculty in the Department of Mental Health at the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. He has a joint appointment in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine and is core faculty of the Johns Hopkins Center on Aging and Health.

Fresh Reads - Seacoast

Submitted by John Russell, Class of 2014

The September Fresh Reads selection is Battle of Ink and Ice: A Sensational Story of News Barons North Pole Explorers, and the Making of Modern Media by Darrell Hartman. This is a 60-year saga of frostbite and fake news that follows the no-holds-barred battle between two legendary explorers to reach the North Pole and the newspapers which stopped at nothing to get the story.

In the fall of 1909, a pair of bitter contests captured the world's attention. The American explorers Robert Peary and Frederick Cook both claimed to have discovered the North Pole, sparking a vicious feud that was unprecedented in international scientific and geographic circles. At the same time, the rivalry between two powerful New York City newspapers—the storied Herald and the ascendant Times—fanned the flames of the so-called polar controversy, as each paper financially and reputationally committed itself to an opposing explorer and fought desperately to defend him.

Battle of Ink and Ice presents a frank portrayal of Arctic explorers, brave men who both inspired and deceived the public. It also sketches a vivid portrait of the newspapers that funded, promoted, narrated and often distorted their exploits. By turns tragic and absurd, Battle of Ink and Ice brims with contemporary relevance, touching as it does on themes of class, celebrity, the ever-quicken news cycle, and the benefits and pitfalls of an increasingly interconnected world. Above all, perhaps, its cast of characters testifies—colorfully and compellingly—to the ongoing role of personality and publicity in American cultural life as the Gilded Age gave way to the twentieth century—the American century.

We will meet on Monday, September 16 at 1:30 p.m. via Zoom. Contact John Russell (russelljohnt@comcast.net) to receive the Zoom link.

Co-Chair's Chat

Submitted by Su Bennett, Class of 2014

Some benefits are that laughter reduces blood pressure and heart rate, it conditions the abdominal muscles, it helps the body fight infection and it makes you (and others) feel good!

So, I'm starting this Chair's Chat with a joke: what do you call blackbirds that stick together? (Answer later.)

Laughter, camaraderie, friendship, support and many, many other benefits come when you take an OLLI course or volunteer in some way.

This fiscal year (July 2024-June 2025), Bob Muzerall and I are sharing the Chair position for your Leadership Council (LC).

First, as they retire from the LC, I would like to deeply thank Dee Angwin, Jen Graf, Bob Jones and Sharon Kace for their years of guidance, thought-provoking opinions and sincerely caring for OLLI. And then welcome Jim Mahoney to the team, looking forward to a great year ahead. The volunteer members of your LC for this year are Alexandria Arnold, Mike Baker, Peg Fargo, Jacki Fogarty, Cindy Graham, Jim Mahoney, Bob Muzerall, John Russell and me – Su Bennett.

And, of course, we are joined by our magnificent OLLI Admin Team that we couldn't exist without: Toniann Leavitt, Tori Berube, Tessa McDonnell and Bryan Whittier.

What is the LC, you ask, and what can we do for you? Simply put, we are members who believe in OLLI and want it to thrive in NH. We want the experiences of our members and presenters who volunteer their time and knowledge to be positive, stimulating and fun. We represent all members and volunteers of OLLI to help ensure the success of the program. We meet monthly on the fourth Monday, usually by Zoom. So, if you are interested or curious, please contact any of us with questions or concerns; all LC members' emails are found on the last page of Outlook. If you'd like to attend an LC meeting – all members are welcome – we can send you the link.

Now for the long-awaited answer: vel-crows (groan)

Laughter is contagious. Pass it on!

Leadership Council meetings are generally held on the Zoom platform on the fourth Monday of the month from 10:00 a.m. to noon, giving members the opportunity to observe our governance structure firsthand. The next meeting will be Monday, September 23. All members are welcome. Contact John Russell, at russelljohnt@comcast.net for information or a Zoom link.
