Reaching Out and Engaging With You

Submitted by Toniann Leavitt, Program Director

Note: All underlined blue words or phrases are clickable links.

Dear OLLI Members,

February is a wonderful time to pause, reflect, and enjoy the connections that make OLLI at UNH such a special learning community. Whether you're joining us in person or online, it's been energizing to see members engaged, curious, and eager to learn from one another.

As we look ahead, course registration continues to be top of mind. You may notice that our website and course registration pages have a refreshed look and feel. These updates were designed to make it easier to find what you're looking for. We know change can take a little getting used to, and we've shared step-by-step guides and helpful resources to support you along the way. If you missed the email, it is available on our website at unh.edu/OLLI/course-search. As always, our staff is happy to help if you have questions or need assistance.

This month also includes Random Acts of Kindness Week, a reminder of the small gestures that help build strong communities. At OLLI, kindness shows up every day—in welcoming a new member, helping a classmate navigate Zoom, sharing resources or simply offering a friendly smile. These moments are part of what make OLLI such a supportive and welcoming place to learn.

Thank you for being part of OLLI at UNH and for the generosity of spirit you bring to this community. I hope February brings you discovery, connection, and plenty of moments of kindness.

Warmly,
Toniann Leavitt
Director, OLLI at UNH

Registration Guide Correction

Yesterday you received a Registration Guide with detailed instructions for using the updated registration system. There is a slight but important error at the end of Step 3. Instead of "You cannot check out with an active OLLI at UNH membership" the text should read "You cannot check out without an active OLLI at UNH membership." Click for a corrected copy.

Granite State Ambassadors

Twice each year OLLI gets the opportunity to connect with our partners at @nhgranitestateambassadors to catch up and talk about our upcoming term. There're some laughs, some great information and a mutual appreciation for what each of our organizations do!

Grab your coffee and click to watch the video starring Tori Berube and GSA Executive Director Kelly Bryer!

Community Outreach Bedford Women's Club

OLLI Director Toniann Leavitt and Leadership Council Chair Su Bennett introduced, informed and invited this community organization to all things OLLI in January.

Spring Term Registration Starts February 2 at 9:00 A.M.

Online ~~~ By Telephone ~~~ By Mail

Tips and tricks for a successful registration:

- Be sure you know your username and password (remember, your password must be changed if you haven't done so in the last 90 days – you will be prompted if that change is necessary). Log in ahead of time to be sure.
- Your membership must be active to sign up for courses. Renew ahead of time.
- Registering online is the fastest way to secure your courses. Log in to your account here.
- If you log in to the system before 9:00 a.m., you must refresh your browser at 9:00 when the system goes live. Use the little circular arrow found on most browsers.
- If you need help, call the OLLI office at (603) 862-6554, but know that hundreds of calls come in on registration morning. DO leave a voicemail rather than calling repeatedly. Calls will be returned as soon as possible.
- Some courses fill up fast! If a course you want is full, DO put yourself on the waitlist. Our track record for getting waitlisted members into classes is pretty good. But, if we don't know you're interested in a course, we can't take action. You are not obligated to register if/when a space becomes available and there is no charge until you do enroll.
- Mailed-in registrations are processed by the same staff members who are answering phones and troubleshooting problems. If your registration is received in the office before February 2 processing could be any time during the day on February 2. You will receive an email confirmation after your registration is processed.

You've already read about OLLI's updated website. Part of the website upgrade involves the registration system and you're probably going to love it!

Select your courses – BOY, HAS THAT CHANGED!

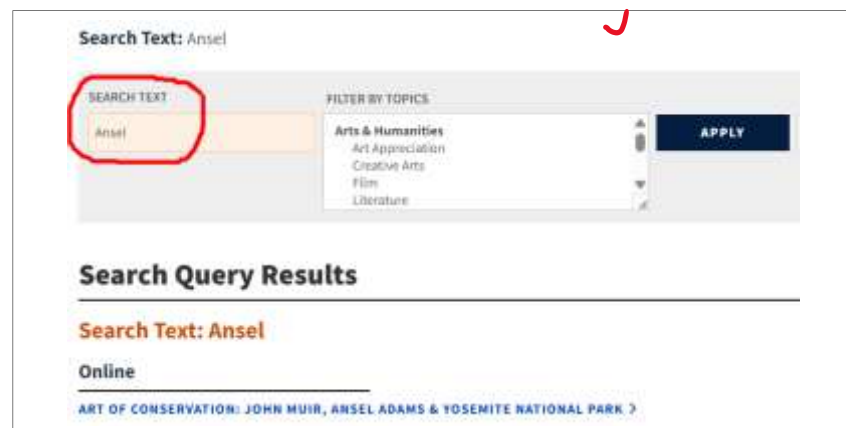

- ✓ Have you made a list of the courses you want? Just bring up an alphabetical list of all the courses. To the far right of the search bar, click the APPLY button. From the list you may click on each of the course(s) you want.

- ✓ Haven't decided for sure? But you know you want to choose some cooking courses? Below the search bar, you may check the Cooking box to bring up a list of all the cooking courses.

- ✓ Can't remember the name of the course you heard about at Preview, but it had something to do with Ansel Adams? In the search bar, type Ansel and click SEARCH.

Once you have made your course selections and added them to your cart, click Checkout and you will be taken to your account login page.

From there click Programs then OLLI to return to your cart to complete the payment process.

Look Forward to These!

Winter is the Time for Hot Chocolate and BOOKS!

Capital Region Mug 'n' Muffin Sharing the Stories of the Books We Love

Thursday, February 12, 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
City-Wide Community Center
14 Canterbury Road, Concord

Spend a winter morning with the OLLI Capital Region Central Committee and Chapter Chats Book Club as we share our joy of reading. All members are welcome to this event.

Let's talk about the impact a book has had for you – did you learn something new, did it open your mind, do you approach decisions differently, is it your all-time favorite (and why) – or discuss any other aspect that makes reading such an important part of your life.

This is also your opportunity to trade in a few books you've read and pick up some new titles for your winter reading! Bring up to three books to trade and choose new treasures. Don't have any books to spare right now? Come anyway and take some home as we always have a few more than we can use.

As you greet OLLI friends and meet new ones surrounded by all the books, we will have coffee, tea and cookies ready for you (as well as some deliciously warm and wonderful raspberry hot chocolate!).

Registration by Monday, February 9 preferred! Click here to register online or call the OLLI Office at (603) 862-OLLI (6554). In case of inclement weather, all registrants will be notified of cancellation or postponement.

Mt. Washington Valley Mug 'n' Muffin Fall In Love With Books

Monday, February 16, 10:00 - 11:00 a.m.
Mt. Washington Observatory Offices
2779 White Mountain Highway, North Conway

Spend a winter morning with book enthusiasts from the Mt. Washington Valley as we share our love of reading. All members and their guests are welcome to join us for this Mug & Muffin event.

Our discussion will focus on the impact a book has had for you – learning something new, why it is your all-time favorite, or any other aspect that makes reading such an important part of your life.

This is your opportunity to swap books you've read and pick up some new titles for your winter reading! Bring up to three books to trade and choose new treasures. Don't have any books to spare right now? Come anyway and take a book home!

As you greet OLLI friends and meet new ones surrounded by books we love, we will have coffee, tea and refreshments ready for you. Bring your own mug if you like!

RSVP by Friday, February 13! Register online, or by calling the OLLI Office at (603) 862-OLLI (6554). In case of inclement weather, all registrants will be notified of cancellation or postponement.

Greater Manchester Lunch & Learn Meet Your Local Community News Source!

Friday, March 6, 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
UNH-Manchester, 88 Commercial Street

Manchester InkLink is an online space for news, meeting coverage, happenings, events and more. NH journalist Carol Robidoux, the InkLink's publisher, shares why in 2014 she founded and created the InkLink. Click to register online or call the OLLI Office at (603) 862-6554.

Where Were YOU in January?

PREVIEWing our Spring Courses, of course!

Capital Region welcomed members and guests, then presenters wowed attendees with enticing glimpses into must-enroll courses.

On the Seacoast the tables and the presenters were colorful.

Manchester attracted a crowd to hear dynamic presenters (pictured below is Joseph Spoerl) and to recognize the “stars” of OLLI posted along most of the walls.

Stars included presenters, OLLI volunteers and staff. At right, Jane Van Zandt presides over movie treats.

Mt. Washington Valley's open house format featured the same interest and excitement about the upcoming Spring term as members and presenters met informally.

All OLLI Book Clubs welcome members from any region

Capital Region Chapter Chats

Submitted by Peg Fargo

The next regular meeting will be on February 23 at 1:30 p.m. on Zoom. The book selection is An Unfinished Love Story by Doris Kearns Goodwin. All OLLI members are welcome to attend and you do not have to read the book to join and listen to the discussion.

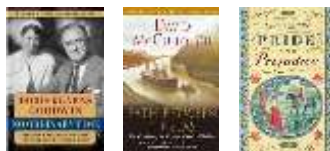

Doris Kearns Goodwin is a historian, biographer and, yes, a former sports journalist. She specializes in the American presidency, and her work has illuminated the lives of Presidents like Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, FDR and LBJ. Goodwin has written a plethora of books and the awards are numerous, including a Pulitzer Prize in 1995 for No Ordinary Time: Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt: The Home Front in WWII.

This story of the Goodwin's life and love is inundated with history with some interesting facts as well as tales of the relationships formed in their early days in DC, what they witnessed up close and personal, words he wrote which had a profound impact on the American people – all eloquently told with the wit, charm and dazzle only Ms. Kearns Goodwin can deliver.

The book selection for March:

March 30 - The Berry Pickers by Amanda Peters

Chapter Chats meets on the last Monday of the month at 1:30 p.m. on Zoom. There's never a requirement to finish or even read the book before the meetings; you can simply enjoy the discussion. OLLI members everywhere are welcome to join us by Zoom. Contact pegfargo7762@outlook.com for a Zoom link.

Fresh Reads - Seacoast

Submitted by John Russell

The Fresh Reads selection for February is The Path between the Seas: The Creation of the Panama Canal by David McCullough. This book tells the stories of the men and women who fought against all odds to fulfill the 400-year-old dream of constructing a maritime passageway between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

McCullough masterfully recounts astonishing engineering and medical accomplishments, political power plays, heroic successes and tragic failures. Applying his remarkable gift for writing lucid, lively exposition, McCullough weaves the many strands of the momentous event into a comprehensive and captivating tale.

Winner of the National Book Award for history, the Francis Parkman Prize, the Samuel Eliot Morison Award, and the Cornelius Ryan Award (for the best book of the year on international affairs), The Path Between the Seas is a must-read for anyone interested in American history, technological innovation, international intrigue and human drama.

Please join us on Monday, February 16 at 1:30 p.m. by Zoom. To receive a Zoom invitation, please contact John Russell at russelljohnt@comcast.net.

Chair's Chat

Submitted by Su Bennett, Chair, Leadership Council

Question- Why does coffee always taste better in the second month of the year?

As I sit here with my great tasting cup of coffee, looking out the window at the gift that Mother Nature just left us – over 18 inches of snow – I think of how fortunate it is that we can get together online.

This semester we have 30 classes and eight SIGs (Shared Interest Groups) that meet via Zoom. I know, I know, I've chatted with many of you who don't like to use Zoom, but give it another try – it's much safer to go online than get out there driving in the white stuff! And there are even four Zoom classes that meet in the early evening.

The zoom technology has been improving and is much easier to use than in the early days (can you believe it's been six years since we rolled out our first Zoom classes?). We even offer a free class, Intro to Zoom, (page 33 in your catalog) – and remember, if the class is full, put yourself on the waitlist and we may be able to offer an additional class (thank you, Tessa!).

Answer- It's Feb-BREW-ary!

By the way, did you know that, if you add a few shakes of salt to the grounds before you brew a pot of coffee, it makes the coffee less acidic and tastes even better.

As you get ready to register consider this . . .

Be open to unexpected possibilities – try a course outside of your normal choices.

Leadership Council meetings are generally held on the Zoom platform on the fourth Monday of the month from 10:00 a.m. to noon, giving members the opportunity to observe our governance structure firsthand.

The next meeting will be Monday, February 23. All members are welcome.

This month, contact Su Bennett, at subennett74@gmail.com for information or a Zoom link.

A Few Final Words

UNH Manchester Parking Passes

If you register for courses in the UNH-Manchester facility, your parking pass will be sent to you by email. If you are unable to print out the pass, follow the instructions in the email to pick up a pass from the OLLI office.

Presenter Videos Online

More than 50 presenters recorded promotions for their Spring courses and they are posted on the OLLI website. Click here to find the page and click on the course name to hear the presentation.

Our Presidents Were Pretty Funny Fellas!

I'm not worried about the deficit; it's big enough to take care of itself.

Ronald Reagan

How has retirement affected my golf game? A lot more people beat me now.

Dwight D. Eisenhower

When we got into office, the thing that surprised me most was to find that things were just as bad as we'd been saying they were.

John F. Kennedy

Some folks look at me and see a certain swagger. In Texas, we call it walkin'.

George W. Bush

My esteem in this country has gone up substantially. It is very nice now when people wave at me, they use all their fingers.

Jimmy Carter

If one morning I walked on top of the water across the Potomac River, the headline that afternoon would read "President Can't Swim."

Lyndon B. Johnson

If I had to name my greatest strength, I guess it would be my humility. Greatest weakness, it's possible that I'm a little too awesome.

Barack Obama
