Fall Term Registration

Monday, August 4, 9:00 a.m.

Online ~~~ By Telephone ~~~ By Mail

Tips and tricks for a successful registration:

- Be sure you know your username and password (remember, your password must be changed if you haven't done so in the last 90 days – you will be prompted if that change is necessary). Click here for instructions. Log in ahead of time to be sure.
- Your membership must be active to sign up for courses. Renew ahead of time.
- Registering online is the fastest way to secure your courses. Log in to your account here.
- If you log in to the system before 9:00 a.m., you must refresh your browser at 9:00 when the system goes live. Use the little circular arrow found on most browsers.
- If you need help, call the OLLI office at (603) 862-6554, but know that hundreds of calls come in on registration morning. DO leave a voicemail rather than calling repeatedly. Calls will be returned as soon as possible.
- Some courses fill up fast! If a course you want is full, DO put yourself on the waitlist. Our track record for getting waitlisted members into classes is pretty good. But, if we don't know you're interested in a course, we can't take action. You are not obligated to register if/when a space becomes available and there is no charge until you do enroll.
- Mailed-in registrations are processed by the same staff members who are answering phones and troubleshooting problems; processing could be any time during the day on August 4. You will receive an email confirmation after your registration is processed.

Liability Waivers

Liability waivers are required for all OLLI members participating in any class, SIG or social activity. Once a year, you will be required to sign a new waiver. There are three ways to sign:

- Online – When you register for a course or renew your membership, you will notice a pop-up with the waiver. Follow the prompts for your online signature.
- By mail – Your catalog contains a form for membership renewal, course registration AND the waiver of liability. Simply sign it and mail it to the OLLI Office.
- By telephone . . . isn't really possible. If you renew or register by telephone, you will receive a link to an online form for your signature. The link will be sent to your email address and you must complete the waiver in order to have your telephone renewal or registration processed.

Reaching Out and Engaging With You

Submitted by Toniann Leavitt, Program Director

Welcome back to another vibrant semester of learning, discovery, and community at OLLI at UNH! As the leaves begin to hint at change, so too begins our exciting Fall 2025 semester—bursting with more than 160 stimulating courses, engaging special events, and opportunities to connect with fellow lifelong learners from across New Hampshire and around the U.S.

Fall registration opens Monday, August 4 at 9:00 a.m., and I encourage you to log in early to secure your seat in some of our most anticipated offerings. This semester's catalog features a terrific variety of new and returning favorites—from Barbershop Harmony: How Do They Do That? to History Lover's Guide to New Hampshire, and Maine History at the Old York Historical Society. Whether you're curious about local geology, global politics, art history, creative writing, or want to finally take that birding course you've been eyeing—we've got something for you.

If you've taken the same kinds of classes for a while, consider mixing things up and trying something new. Maybe that course on Engaging with Classical Music or Walking Tours of Portsmouth will surprise you! And as always, we encourage you to bring a friend to a single class

(when space allows) to share the OLLI experience. New members are always welcome—and word of mouth is one of the best ways we grow.

This fall is also a great time to get involved beyond the classroom. Join a Shared Interest Group (SIG), volunteer as a class assistant or Zoom moderator, serve on a committee or simply attend one of our many social events. Your participation is what makes our OLLI community thrive.

Looking ahead, we'll also be hosting our annual OLLI Town Hall in September, where you'll hear updates on the program and have a chance to ask questions, share ideas and get more deeply engaged in shaping OLLI's future. Keep an eye on our Halfway Pointers newsletter for details.

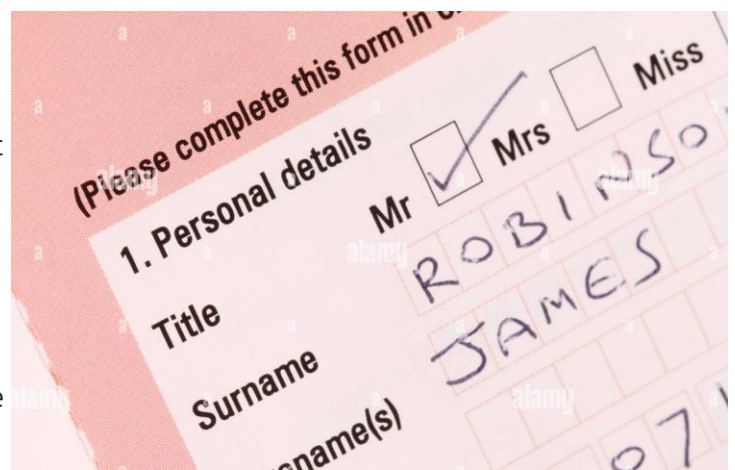

As we step into this new season together, I want to thank you—for your enthusiasm, your generosity of spirit and your unwavering commitment to learning. No matter how you choose to be involved in our learning community this fall, I hope it brings you inspiration, connection, and joy.

Warmly,
Toniann Leavitt,
Director, OLLI at UNH

Required Data Updates

When renewing your OLLI at UNH membership online, please be sure to confirm that your contact information (preferred telephone number, email address and mailing address) is correct and typed in upper and lower case – NOT all capital letters.

If your address includes BOTH a physical mailing address and a PO Box, please choose just ONE to list in our enrollment management system. If your physical mailing address includes an apartment or unit number, please make sure that information is listed in STREET 2 and not combined into STREET 1. If you have questions on updating your contact information, please contact the OLLI office.

Lunch & Learn

Tech for All: Making Technology Easier to See, Hear, and Use

Friday, August 22, noon – on Zoom – Free (Rescheduled)

Presented by Mark Glisson of the Hooksett Library

Join us for a session dedicated to making today's technology work better for you! Whether it's making the text on your phone or tablet larger, having your device read out loud to you, or using voice commands instead of typing—there are many built-in accessibility features designed to make computers, smartphones, and tablets easier to use. We'll explore helpful tools for vision, hearing, mobility, and more, with plenty of time for questions and hands-on examples. Discover how to customize your tech so it fits your needs—not the other way around!

Click here to register or call the OLLI Office at (603) 862-6554..

Lunch & Learn

Here's to a Healthy New (Academic) Year

Monday, August 11, 11:30 a.m. – UNH Manchester -- Free

Limited seats are left to enjoy a presentation by Integra Direct Primary Care's Dr. Belinda Castor, so, if you're interested, register quickly. You'll be asked to submit your health/lifestyle-related questions ahead of the program and Dr. Castor will answer as many as possible. No medical advice or recommendations will be offered, but a wealth of more general information will be shared.

Fall Term Classroom Parking

Capital Region

Nearly all classes scheduled for NH Technical Institute in Concord have been moved to Little Hall. While there is some parking immediately adjacent to the building, you may find that parking in Lot A is your best bet. The map below shows the campus with two circles. The one on the left is Lot A and the one on the right is Little Hall. Orange arrows show your walking path from the parking lot to the building entrance.

Handicap parking is available right outside of the Little Hall entrance and more behind Grappone Hall (Building 11 on the map).

Manchester

Parking passes will be required at the UNH-Manchester facility (88 Commercial Street). Before the start of the Fall 2025 term, if you have registered for a course at this facility, you will receive a parking pass by email that will be valid throughout the term for all courses and/or events. If you do not have a printer, you may pick up your pass in the OLLI office before your first class. The pass must be displayed on your dashboard whenever you are in the building. You may park in the lot to the right of the building as you drive in. Handicap parking is adjacent to the building and behind the building.

Online Presenter Videos

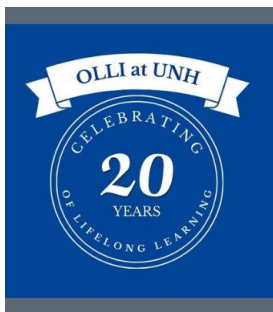

More than 50 of our talented presenters recorded short videos about their upcoming courses to give you a sneak peek about their course! Click here and scroll down to Course Preview Videos to learn about some of the intriguing opportunities coming your way this semester!

OLLI Trivia Mastery Pays Off for Four Members

You may remember last year a series of newsletters provided 20 facts about OLLI in celebration of our 20th Anniversary. At the end of the series, in February, you were invited to take a quiz. Members with a score of 100% were to be entered into a raffle with a free single-session course as the prize.

Five members, including one member of the Leadership Council who disqualified herself from the prize, achieved a perfect score. Instead of a drawing, the following four members have won the coveted free class which they will enjoy this term.

Congratulations to: Sue Callahan, Kathy Cassano, Stephanie Parkinson and Jim Stone, our 20th Anniversary OLLI Scholars.

Mt. Washington Valley's Preview and Open House was a mix of informal chat among members, friends and presenters (above) and formal presentations by presenters (right).

The Seacoast Preview offered presenters speaking about their courses (Ann Holbrook at left), but the seating at small tables leant an air of informality to the social gathering.

Yikes! Hikes! Mt. Washington Valley's Hiking SIG visited the Flume Gorge and the Old Man of the Mountain Visitor Center (below).

Above, although the Virtual Happy Hour SIG is on summer vacation, some members enjoyed a visit to Zorvino Vineyards.

Below, the Seacoast Hiking SIG explored the beautiful Kingman Farm on the last hike. Below that is a preview of the August hike at the Tucker and French Family Forest.

Fly Your Creative Flag in the Seacoast

*It's a BIRD . . . it's a PLANE . . . No, wait, wrong intro.
It's NOT a COURSE . . . it's NOT a Lunch & Learn . . . it's not JUST a SOCIAL EVENT . . .
It's a GET-TOGETHER with BENEFITS!!!*

Come to the Firefly, Portsmouth's pottery place, where you can get creative alongside your OLLI friends.

The Seacoast Learning Region is hosting four events at Firefly Pottery and you are invited to attend as many as you wish.

Each event will feature a different skill and you will leave with the art piece you create. Please RSVP to Lynne Brosch (lrugg1224@aol.com) by the deadline listed below to attend each one and make payment directly to Firefly when you arrive. The schedule and associated projects are:

Thursday, September 4, 10:30 a.m. - 12 noon
Autumn Leaf Platter using Paper Technique. Using bright colors of the season and cut out leaf shapes, paint a beautiful platter for Autumn display and serving. $50 per person. RSVP to Lynne by Monday, September 1.

Thursday, October 9, 10:30 a.m. - 12 noon
Witch's Hat Lantern with Pumpkin. We used a "Tim Burton" color theme on ours, but you can paint your Witch's Hat any way you'd like! Plus, you get a sweet little Pumpkin to add onto the brim. Wicked cool! $40 per person. RSVP to Lynne by Monday, October 6.

As we prepare to start attending classes again, we ask that you wear your name tag so presenters and classmates know who you are.

If you've misplaced yours, please call the OLLI Office at (603) 862-OLLI (6554) to request a replacement.

Note: they are mailed from Durham on Fridays.

Thursday, November 13, 10:30 a.m. - 12 noon
Glass Fused Cardinal on Birch Tree plate. Working with brightly colored glass, create an eye-catching piece that can be displayed all year long. $46 per person. RSVP to Lynne by Monday, November 10.

Thursday, December 4, 10:3 a.m. - 12 noon
Christmas Ornament Painting. There will be a wide selection of ornaments for you to choose, paint and personalize in time for holiday celebrations! Prices vary per piece. RSVP to Lynne by Monday, December 1.

72 Mirona Road, Suite 7, Portsmouth

Contact Lynn Brosch if you have any questions and to RSVP for each event: lrugg1224@aol.com.

Good Morning, New Hampshire!

Capital Region Chapter Chats

Submitted by Mary Davies

Chapter Chats normally meets the last Monday of each month at 1:30 via Zoom, but not this August. The next meeting will be September 29 when the discussion will be about The Hundred Secret Senses by Amy Tan.

This novel is set in San Francisco and a remote village in southern China as half-sisters Olivia and Kwan navigate a complicated relationship.

To receive a Zoom link for the July 28 meeting, contact Donna Frost at dfrost49@hotmail.com.

As always, there's no requirement to finish or even read the book before the meetings. Readers residing anywhere are welcome to join. Try us out!

Manchester Book Club

Submitted by Mike Baker

The Manchester Book Club generally meets on the fourth Tuesday of the month at 7:00 p.m. on Zoom. Members discuss books of general interest. Information about the Manchester Book Club is available from SIG leader Mike Baker at mbmikebaker0@gmail.com.

Fresh Reads - Seacoast

Submitted by John Russell

Fresh Reads is a book club hosted by the Seacoast Region. Its focus is on nonfiction works of topical interest. The club normally meets on the third Monday of each month at 1:30 p.m. on Zoom, however, it takes off the two months between spring and fall terms. So, look for information about the next meeting on Monday, September 15. Information about Fresh Reads is available from SIG leader John Russell at russelljohnt@comcast.net.

SIG News

MWV Ice Cream Trail

- August 6 – 2:00 p.m. – Froagie's, 183 Bridgeton Road, Fryeburg, ME
- August 20 – 2:00 p.m. – Super Secret Ice Cream, 2213 Main Street, Bethlehem

Capital Region (CR) Ice Cream SIG

What a fun time we're having! We've enjoyed ice cream with cows and with chickens who, believe it or not, loved the drips of ice cream falling from cones melting in the oppressive heat. Brave Sue Callahan who tried Upchuck ice cream last month, rated Merryvale's Phantomberry the best flavor ever.

Even though it's sometimes hard to talk while trying to keep up with the ice cream melting as fast as we can lick it, we've managed to get to know each other and have a good time.

Join us at one, some or all of our August stops (start time 1:30 p.m.):

- Friday, August 1 – Sweet Dreamz, 325 Village Street, Penacook
- Tuesday, August 5 – Dodge Farm & Ice Cream Stand, 99 Weare Road, New Boston
- Friday, August 15 – Frekey's Dairy Freeze (voted #1 in the 2025 Cappies!), 74 Fisherville Road, Concord
- Thursday, August 21 – Beech Hill Farm, 107 Beech Hill Road, Hopkinton
- Tuesday, August 26 – Gould Hill Farm, 656 Gould Hill Road, Contoocook (and maybe, depending on weather and crops, apple picking)

New Crafting SIG

Submitted by Sandy O'Neill

A new SIG for wool crafters will start in September on the Seacoast. The name of the SIG is All Things Wool. That means if you knit, crochet, spin yarn, do wool applique, felt, braid rugs or hook them, this is the place for you! This will be a collaborative group sharing ideas and the love of wool.

Our first meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, September 9 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the UNH Professional Development and Training Center at 230 Commerce Way, Portsmouth. Look for more information in the September Outlook.

If you would like to be added to the email list for this SIG or if you have questions, contact Sandy O'Neill at sandy_oneill@comcast.net.

Seacoast Hiking/Walking SIG

The Seacoast Hiking SIG will hike the Tucker and French Family Forest, a South East Land Trust (SELT) property in Kingston, NH on Monday, August 11 at 10:00 a.m. The hike will take place rain (unless it is pouring) or shine.

This property is 589 acres and it stretches into Brentwood and Danville along with Kingston. There are wooded trails, wetlands and ponds to see. Click this link to the SELT brochure for this property and a map of trails. tucker-french-guide-print.pdf.

Our hike will be about 3 miles of flat hiking. The trails are easy, but sturdy shoes should still be worn. More specific information about the hike will be emailed to those OLLI members on the hiking email list as well as last minute changes and reports on trail conditions. If you would like to be added to this list, contact Sandy at sandy_oneill@comcast.net.

SIGs (Shared Interest Groups)

What Are They?

A member benefit – you participate for free with other OLLI members who share your interest. All OLLI SIGs welcome members from any region. Nonmembers may attend up to three SIG meetings but must join OLLI to continue.

Never be afraid to try something new. Life gets boring when you stay within the limits of what you already know.

Lunchtime Learning that Inspires

OLLI at UNH offers more than just top-notch classes—we also host dynamic Lunch & Learn sessions throughout the year that dive into fascinating topics in just an hour. These free, informal events are perfect for curious minds looking to explore something new without a long-term commitment.

One recent standout featured Sydney Rollins, a UNH doctoral student and STEM-MoBILE project manager, who introduced us to the cutting-edge world of biofabrication—the science of 3D-printing living tissues like skin, cartilage and even blood vessels. Sydney shared how this futuristic field is shaping regenerative medicine and gave us a peek into the STEM-MoBILE, a traveling bio-lab that brings high-tech learning to schools and communities across New Hampshire.

Participants were wowed by how bioinks (gels mixed with living cells) are used to “print” layers of tissue—think science fiction turned real. It's all part of a growing biotech movement in our region, now known as “ReGen Valley,” and yes, it's happening right here in New Hampshire!

If you haven't participated in a Lunch & Learn yet, don't miss out. These sessions are fun, fast, and full of fresh ideas. Keep an eye on your email for the next one—you might just discover your new favorite subject over lunch.

And here's some fun information about how I pulled together this article!

My daughter suggested using ChatGPT, an AI (artificial intelligence) assistant that you've probably heard of, to help gather ideas and polish the writing. She uses it all the time at work and was interested to see what it would do for me. ChatGPT searched the web and found info about OLLI and about Sydney Rollins and the STEM-MoBILE and incorporated it all! I was already super-impressed with Sydney's Lunch & Learn about biofabrication and now have added ChatGPT to my “wow” list as a result of that program and my reporting about it.

She gave Chat GPT the following prompt: "As the chair of the Leadership Council for OLLI at UNH, I would like to write a four-paragraph article for our monthly newsletter that reminds our members that in addition to the classes they can take throughout the year, there are also extremely interesting Lunch & Learns offered throughout the year. One recent one I attended was a class about biofabrication led by Sydney Rollins. Please include interesting facts from this class."

The results of this prompt were too long and intensive. So the follow-up prompt was "please shorten this article and make it a little more exciting."

ChatGPT replied, "Absolutely! Here's a shorter, more engaging version of your article with a lively tone, ideal for the OLLI at UNH newsletter:" The results are the article you just read.

FYI, ChatGPT.com is available on the web and you can try a free version. Also, our monthly Technology You Can Use Lunch & Learns have covered ChatGPT and other AI tools. Be on the lookout if you're interested in some guidance for this technology.

And here are your jokes for this month:

Why did GPT become a chef?

It's great at processing raw data.

What did GPT say to Siri?

"Nice try, amateur."

Leadership Council meetings are generally held on the Zoom platform on the fourth Monday of the month from 10:00 a.m. to noon, giving members the opportunity to observe our governance structure firsthand. The next meeting will be Monday, August 25. All members are welcome. Contact John Russell, at russelljohnhnt@comcast.net for information or a Zoom link.
