We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who, with the Father and the Son, is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen

The choir sits and then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and

Song 1

"In so far as the members of the Church believe that God has reconciled them to himself out of sheer love, they are bound to relate to one another in 'moral fellowship.' This is the solidarity that comes from the practice and attitude of 'openness.' Members must approach one another with a readiness to listen, perchance to learn."
Karl Barth

In order to understand particular human beings in their concrete predicaments, it is not enough to hoist one's prejudices over them.

During the Eucharistic prayer, it is traditional to ring bells after the words of institution. These bells signal that what we gather to do in worship is significant, not only for those within the church building, but for the entire community, and indeed for the entire world.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Traditional - Rite I

O God, who before the passion of thy only-begotten Son didst reveal his glory upon the holy mount: Grant unto us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

READING from the Book of Exodus 24:12-18

The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them." Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

PSALM 99

Dominus regnavit (The Lord is King)

1. The Lord is King, be the people never so unpatient
he sitteth between the cherubims, be the earth never so unquiet.
2. The Lord is great in Sion and high above all people.
3. They shall give thanks unto thy Name which is great, wonderful, and holy.
4. The King's power loveth judgement;
thou hast prepared equity:
thou hast executed judgement and righteousness in Jacob.
5. O magnify the Lord our God and fall down before his footstool, for he is holy.

6. Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among such as call upon his Name these called upon the Lord, and he heard them.
7. He spake unto them out of the cloudy pillar for they kept his testimonies, and the law that he gave them.
8. Thou heardest them, O Lord our God
thou forgavest them, O God, and punishedst their own inventions.
9. O magnify the Lord our God,
and worship him upon his holy hill for the Lord our God is holy.

READING from The Second Letter of Peter 1:16-21

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, in whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

GOSPEL from The Gospel According to Matthew 17:1-9

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; in whom I am well pleased; listen to him!”When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

ANTHEM TEXT

Christ upon the mountain peak	Paul Bouman	Ave Verum	Colin Mawby
Christ, upon the mountain peak stands alone in glory blazing; Let us if we dare to speak, with the saints and angels praise him. Alleluia!	Swift the cloud of glory came, God proclaiming in its thunder Jesus as his Son by name! Nations, cry aloud in wonder. Alleluia!	Sung in Latin Ave verum corpus natum de Maria Virgine. Vere passum immolatum in cruce pro homine: Cujus latus perforatum fluxit aqua et sanguine: Esto nobis praegustatum mortis in examine. O Jesu dulcis! O Jesu pie! O Jesu! fili Mariae.
Trembling at his feet we saw Moses and Elijah speaking. All the prophets and the law shout through them their joyful greeting. Alleluia!	This is God’s beloved Son! Law and prophets fade before him; First and last and only one, Let creation now adore him. Alleluia!	English translation Hail true body born of the Virgin, Who has truly suffered and was sacrificed on the cross for mankind; Whose side was pierced and from whence water flowed with blood: Be for us a foretaste of bliss in our final examining. O Jesu sweet! O Jesu kind! O Jesu! son of Mary.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know, the 2026 Annual Meeting is a few weeks later this year and therefore the active Stewardship Campaign is also longer? The good news is there is one more week to submit a pledge to Stewardship 2026. The down side is the Stewardship Committee, volunteers and staff are still diligently working to connect with the 44 households who pledged a total of $86,185 last year with hopes of securing their pledges for 2026. We are almost at the finish line of knowing the collective generosity which will determine budgets, opportunities and financial health of the coming year. Thank you, as always, to those who have already pledged, and to those who intend to pledge.
