give heed to my cry; *
listen to my prayer, which does not / come from lying lips.
- 2 Let my vindication come forth from your presence; *
let your eyes be / fixed on justice.

The Sermon

The Rector

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble, especially Bridget,

Lyn, Megan, Markus, Cecilia, Elizabeth, Lin, David, Alicia and Renee;

That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest;

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

Minister and People

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen

You are welcome to receive both the bread and the wine, bread only, or a blessing. To receive the bread, stand or kneel at the altar rail and the priest will place the host in your hands. The wine is available either from the common cup, or in individually pre-packaged containers on small tables at either end of the altar rail. To receive the wine from the pre-packaged cup, open the foil seal at the top of the container, drink the wine, and place the empty cup into the basket.

The Postcommunion Prayer Please stand as able.

Presider Let us pray.

People Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ;
and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today we welcome, the Rev. Dr. Cathy George

Our annual stewardship campaign is underway! Pledge packets with information and a pledge card are available throughout the church. Pledge cards can be placed in the collection plate, dropped off in the office or mailed to the church. Ingathering Sunday is November 16. On the last inside page of this bulletin, there is information describing the ways our annual budget is funded and how those funds are used. Please take a moment to review and feel free to reach out to Greg, our Wardens Simon Ringrose and Matt Hast or our treasurer Louise Ambler Osborn if you have questions.

Our Annual Harvest Fair is this coming Saturday, November 15 from 10am–2pm. Our ever-popular Turkey Dinner will be served from 12pm–2pm with a suggested donation of $20 per person.

Here are the ways you can help out this week:

1. Donate a Silent Auction item
2. Donate used books for the book table (drop off during church office hours: Tues/Thurs 9am-3pm)
3. Take flyers to post around the neighborhood
4. Bake for the Bake Table!! Please wrap your treats as they will be sold – either as a single item (cakes, breads, etc), or in allotments (cookies, brownies, etc) – use the sign-up sheet at coffee hour or let Shannon Fry know your baking plans.

PLUS

- Thursday evening 11/13: Pie Prep with Paul Newell
- Friday 11/14 at 5:30pm: Fair Set Up
- Saturday 11/15: help serving tables (especially kids!) and help cleaning up

Thanks to our generous donors who have already contributed and thanks to those who help out this week during our final countdown!

SNAP Benefits will not be issued in November due to the government shutdown. This means that pressure on local food pantries will increase greatly during what is already their highest-demand season leading up to Thanksgiving. If you are in a position to help, please consider making a donation to Harvest on Vine, our local food pantry. If you are worried about your own finances due to the loss of SNAP this month, please talk to Greg and he can help connect you with other resources.

Parishioner Bridget Nyhan's friends in the community have organized a GoFundMe page to help cover the cost of groceries, transportation, and other needs for her family during her ongoing treatment for Guillain-Barré Syndrome. If you are able to assist, please go to <https://www.gofundme.com/f/can-you-help-b-and-her-family> to contribute.

You are invited to begin Advent with a community event intended to set aside a couple of hours to be together for fellowship and conversation. On Tuesday, December 6, at 6:30pm, join us at the church for an “Entering Advent” potluck. Bring a dish, an appetizer, drinks, or a dessert to share. We’ll have some conversation prompts on Advent themes, and a prayer or two, but it will mostly be a chance to be together.

Church Budget Fast Facts

As you consider your pledge for 2026, the Vestry would like to share an overview of our overall budget.

St. John’s has an annual budgeted income of $226,205:

- 55% from pledge donations
- 13% from other giving
- 15% from building rentals*
- 13% from investment income
- 4% from fundraisers and other sources

We receive no financial support from the Episcopal Church or from the Diocese of Massachusetts.

 We are actively looking for new rentals to increase this. Referrals are helpful, so if you know a music class, kids’ activity, or other community group looking for space, please speak with the Rector or a Vestry member.*

St. John’s has annual budgeted expenses of $260,000:

- 39% in salary and benefits for the Rector, who is employed at 60% of full time
- 29% in salary and benefits for our part-time lay staff
- 14% for utilities and building expenses
- 8% to our Diocesan Assessment, which supports the ministry of the wider church
- 10% all other costs (office expenses, music program, outreach, fellowship)

This means we have a structural deficit of $33,000, even with a part-time priest.

Gathering pledges during the fall stewardship campaign every year allows us to put together an accurate budget for the coming year. Thank you for your ongoing support for the ministry of the church.
