

Esther Frankel is an information technology professional with experience working for a number of companies in the Santa Barbara area. After working as a technology consultant and an instructor at the School of Extended Learning in the 1990s, she became a full-time faculty member and Department Chair of the CIS Department at SBCC. She has returned to the School of Extended Learning and has been teaching there since 2022.