

Diana started teaching at SBCC in 1997 after she graduated from Brooks Institute of Photography. She studied Graphic Design at the University of Buenos Aires in her native country of Argentina. Her professional life as a graphic designer and art director enriches the education she provides for her students. She is an engaging and enthusiastic instructor, committed to leaving no one behind. Her goal is to empower EVERYONE to feel comfortable using their computers. Students love her classes because they finally get it! She teaches a broad range of non-credit and credit classes such as Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, web development, MAC and MS Office, photography, and social media classes. She received the 2017-2018 SBCC Faculty Excellence Award.
