

Bruce Jeffrey Burkhardt is a Santa Barbara CA based photographer and artist. Having lived, studied, taught, and traveled internationally for many years, Bruce has gained numerous cultural influences to broaden his creative foundation. Mr. Burkhardt currently shares his experience and knowledge as a digital image maker at Santa Barbara City College and Wake campus for the School of Extended Learning Career Skills Institute. He is a graduate of Brooks Institute of Photography and has owned and operated a greeting card publishing company and a freelance photography business for decades. Bruce is currently focusing on digital image compositing and retouching with a variety of clientele and Getty stock agency.