

SPOOKTACULAR

2020 Online

Video Guidelines for Spooky Readings

Deadline: October 28, 2020

VIDEO

- Length: Five minutes long or less (longer videos may not be accepted)
- Format/file type: Use QuickTime or MP4
- Size: Use highest pixel rate (ideally hd 720 or 1920 x 1080)
- Orientation: Film in landscape (hold device longways)
- Light should face reader, not be from behind reader
- Don't allow background noise (not even music)
- Locate camera so it is even with or above your face (don't shoot from below face)

WHAT TO READ

- Read poems or stories that are original (written by reader) or from "public domain" (75 years or older), see links below for lots of options:
 - www.everywritersresource.com/13-halloween-poems-classic-and-terrifying/
 - <https://americanliterature.com/halloween-stories-for-children>
 - <https://americanliterature.com/halloween>
- Be sure to say the title and author's name of each piece before you read
- You can read more than one piece, but be sure to pause, introduce each, and keep total under 5 minutes.

GENERAL

- Due date: October 28, 2020
- Introduce yourself, and be creative, have fun with props, costumes, do a group reading if you'd like, etc.
- End the video with a call to action as follows: "Please support Sedona Public Library! Visit Sedonapubliclibrary.org to donate."
- Review before submitting: check for sound, visibility, don't cut off heads, etc.
- If possible send via WeTransfer to amackler@sedonapubliclibrary.org.
- Put your name or parent/guardian name (if reading is by a minor) in filename.
- Publication on the Library's Facebook page or YouTube channel is not guaranteed.

PERMISSION: When you, or the parent of a minor, send(s) the video, your submission serves as permission for Sedona Public Library to use video for publicity or educational purposes related to the Library mission, including publication on our Facebook page or YouTube channel. Material remains the property of Sedona Public Library, and you, or the parent/guardian, is not entitled to compensation or payment for its use.