WELCOME

Take a moment of quiet to connect with yourself and with what you know of the Holy. Be present in this moment, trusting that your whole self is welcome here. See if you can allow Divine Love to give you what you need today, and may we all go from this place doing justice, loving kindness, and walking humbly with God.

Welcome

*Call to Worship

Esther Jenkins, liturgist

One: God whispers to each of us: you are my beloved, created in love for love.

All: My spirit answers, Here I am, Lord. Speak to me anew.

One: God breathes on us the Holy Spirit, knitting many members into one body, the body of Christ.

All: Together we answer, Here we are Lord. Come, Holy Spirit.

One: God has yet more vision for the people. Who will work with God to co-create the future?

All: Here we are Lord. Empower us for your work.

One: Gather us in, the old and young, the small and great,

All: to dream Your dreams, receive Your power, and do the work of Love. Amen.

*Hymn #649

"Gather Us In", verse 1 & 2+

GATHER US IN

Prayer of Confession & Assurance

One: God of grace, in the days when your word was rarely heard and when visions were scarce, you broke into Samuel's life and called his name... and he said, "Here I am, speak, for your servant is listening."

All: We confess that recognizing your voice in the clamor of noise around us feels difficult. It's likely that you have called us to be prophetic witnesses or to use our gifts to serve you, and we have either not heard or have been unwilling to respond. Merciful God, help clear away what hinders us from hearing your voice. Help us notice, pause, and with curiosity and trust, respond to you.

One: Please take a moment in silence...

Creative God, we want to be a part of what you create. Thank you for calling our names, again and again, to gather us in and enter the song - a song of healing, justice, joy and restoration. In Your name we pray, Amen.

Scripture Reading

1 Samuel 3:1-21

3 Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

2 At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; 3 the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. 4 Then the LORD called, "Samuel! Samuel!"<sup>[a]</sup> and he said, "Here I am!" 5 and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. 6 The LORD called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." 7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. 8 The LORD called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy. 9 Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening." 11 Then the LORD said to Samuel, "See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make both ears of anyone who hears of it tingle. 12 On that day I will fulfill against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. 13 For I have told him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God,<sup>[b]</sup> and he did not restrain them. 14 Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering forever."

15 Samuel lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. 16 But Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." He said, "Here I am." 17 Eli said, "What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you." 18 So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. Then he said, "It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him."

19 As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. 20 And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the LORD. 21 The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh, for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

This is the word of the Lord, Thanks be to God.

Please take a moment for silent reflection.

Hymn

"Sing a New Church"

NETTLETON

Summoned by the God who made us rich in our diversity,
Gathered in the name of Jesus, richer still in unity:
Let us bring the gifts that differ and, in splendid, varied ways,
Sing a new world into being, one in faith and love and praise.

Trust the goodness of creation; trust the Spirit strong within,
Dare to dream the vision promised, sprung from seed of what has been.
Bring the hopes of every nation; bring the art of every race.
Weave a song of peace and justice; let it sound through time and space.
