

River Road Unitarian Universalist Congregation

Sunday Worship on Zoom Some Instructions

Joining the Watch Party: Sundays, Sign-on: 9:45am. Worship starts at 10am

The week's eWeekly will have the link to join the watch party. It's free and everyone is welcome. Once the Watch Party is started, participants can watch the service video at the same time as other viewers. You can write your messages in the chat box to share with others. (Please remember we are always in covenant with each other, even online.) Wherever you are, you can be with others for Sunday worship!

Scrolling Feature for Joys and Concerns

Our worship watch party includes a scrolling chat feature in which you can note your joys and concerns each week. That scrolling chat is a feature of that space. If you'd like your joys and concerns shared more broadly through the eWeekly, please email Rev. Nancy.

Breakout Instructions

At the end of the worship service, you are welcome to remain on the Zoom call for smaller group breakout rooms to chat directly with other participants.

- You will be sorted into smaller groups of 8-10 people.
- You will see a box that asks to accept the invitation to a breakout room. Accept the invitation.
- In your groups - everyone will take an opportunity to introduce themselves and check in. Then each person can tell the group what they are taking away from the worship service.
- Groups should wrap up by 11:15am. We will not return to the main room. You can leave the Zoom call from your breakout room.
- If you or anyone in your group has a pastoral care need, please email Rev. Nancy.

You'll also be able to find Rev. Nancy's pre-recorded sermon on our website and YouTube channel or her podcast once they're posted. Read more about upcoming services here.