

988 | SUICIDE & CRISIS
LIFELINE

West Virginia 988 and Behavioral
Health Regional Resource Meetings:

Connecting Our Communities

Meeting Purpose:

- Explain and promote 988 and crisis services
- Share behavioral health resources
- Strengthen regional and local partnerships
- Identify gaps and opportunities in service delivery

Who Should Attend:

Members of the public; community, faith-based, and government leaders and organizations; healthcare providers; educators; law enforcement; and anyone invested in the wellbeing of their community.

YOU ARE INVITED!

We are hosting regional meetings around the state to share information about state and local resources to support our health and wellbeing. We want to also hear from you about what is working and what is needed in your community. Your voice matters, and together we can build a more connected, informed, and effective behavioral health system in West Virginia.
