OCHM to offer free admission to military personnel and their families this summer

[Taunton, MA – May 20, 2022] – Old Colony History Museum announced it will join museums nationwide in the Blue Star Museums initiative, a program that provides free admission to currently-serving U.S. military personnel and their families this summer. Blue Star Museums is a partnership between the National Endowment for the Arts and Blue Star Families, in collaboration with the Department of Defense and museums across America.

“We are thrilled to once again be a Blue Star Museum for 2022,” said Katie MacDonald, Executive Director of the Old Colony History Museum. “We have been working hard to make the OCHM accessible to as many families as possible and it is our honor to offer free admission to currently-serving U.S. military personnel and their families this summer.”

“Museums educate and inspire, cause us to wonder and imagine, dream and remember,” said Dr. Maria Rosario Jackson, chair of the National Endowment for the Arts. “By participating in the Blue Star Museums program, the Old Colony History Museum is offering military personnel and their families an opportunity to feel connected to the Taunton community and to explore the world through the power of arts, culture and design, contributing to each person being able to live an artful life.”

Blue Star Museums include children’s museums, art, science, and history museums, zoos, gardens, lighthouses, and more, and hail from all 50 states, District of Columbia, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.
