SEED Corporation has selected Eve Elliott, Vice President of the Business Banking Group at Rockland Trust, as the 2021 Banker of the Year. This award is presented annually to the lender who partners on the largest number of loan projects with SEED and exemplifies the spirit of small business services.

Since beginning her partnership with SEED over ten years ago, Eve has been one of the organization's top referral sources for small business clients. Her dedication and willingness to always look for alternative financing options for her clients has helped entrepreneurs succeed and create new local jobs.

Eve has participated with SEED on both small loan projects and SBA 504 loans, and was the top lending partner for Fiscal Year 2021. She is being recognized as Banker of the Year for the valuable partnership and service she has provided to SEED and the small business community.
