

Summer Book Club 2025

Rev. Joy Mounts is leading a book study on:

Congregational Trauma, Caring, Coping & Learning

by Jill M Hudson | Thursday, July 17th, 2025 7:00- 8:30 pm

Almost every congregation has some kind of community trauma in its past that can influence the present. In this class we will discuss how to recognize and deal with it through a few cases studies.

Register Here

Join Rev. Holly Jackson in discussing the book

"What it Takes to Heal: How Transforming Ourselves Can Change the World" by Prentis Hemphill | Wednesday, August 27, 2025 7-8:30p

After the last few years of collective trauma many of us are in need of healing. How can we get there? And how can community play a part in our healing process? As we follow the Great Healer, how can we heal ourselves and offer healing to others in order to transform the world? Now more than ever, we must learn to find our vision, connect with one another, and embody our values. Join us as we discuss the intersection of healing, justice, and community.

Register Here

