Please tell us, in under three pages, how the nominee's work fits the goals of the award. Specifically, address the following:

1. The nominee's demonstrated commitment to building a movement across racial, ethnic and cultural—particularly Black and Brown—identities.
2. How the nominee's work has had an impact on policy at the regional, state and/or national level.
3. Unique methodologies, practices and artistic expressions that the organization applies in building collaboration across Latino and African-American communities.
4. How low-income families are engaged directly in the planning, work and accomplishments of the nominee.
5. How the organization has fostered peer network engagement, learning and collaboration among organizations that serve low-income families.
6. How the organization has sought to generate field-wide understanding and appreciation of the critical value of movement building.
