2. Read and say if the boy has lost anything:

Have you seen?

Mom!

Have you seen my pencil?
Have you seen it anywhere?
I put it in my pocket
And now it isn't there.

What will I do?

Mom!

Have you seen my lollipop?
Have you seen it anywhere?
I put it in my pocket
And now it isn't there.
What will I do?

Mom!

Have you seen my toy car?
Have you seen it anywhere?
I put it in my pocket
And now it isn't there.
What will I do?

Try the other pocket.

Oh. Yes. Here they are

3. Read and say what thing was lost: (A-Ann, P- Peter)

A: Hi, Peter! I'm glad to see you.

P: Hi, Ann! I'm glad to see you too.

A: Where are you going?

P: I'm hurrying to the Lost and Found.

A: Why? What's the matter? Have you lost anything?

P: Oh, Ann. I left my umbrella in the bus yesterday. I was very upset and didn't notice that I had dropped it.

A: Are you sure that it is your umbrella?

P: Yes, I'm sure of it. I phoned to the Lost and Found and described my umbrella and told them the number of the bus where I had left it.

A: You're lucky indeed.

P: Yes, you're right. I'm very glad.

4. Read and say where the suitcase is:

A: Excuse me. I haven't found my suitcase. It is green in color.

CO: What is your flight number?

A: Lufthansa 320.

CO: Have you looked on belt 15 over there?

A: Yes, I have. But I couldn't find it there.

CO: Well, let me have a look. Is it your suitcase near belt 15?

A: Oh, yes, it's my suitcase. Thank you very much.

CO: You are welcome.
