

DIALOGUE

JOE: Sit down Maria. Let's talk.

MARIA: You have a silk rose for me! Did you make it?

JOE: Yes, I am taking a class at the community college.

MARIA: That is good! When do you have time?

JOE: After I do the inventory at the store, I have time to be creative.

MARIA: What do you like to do everyday?

JOE: Everyday I do my exercises at the gym. Then I go home and make lunch. After that I do the dishes. Finally, I go to work. What do you do everyday?

MARIA: I have to make dinner everyday before I leave for work. When I come home I am too tired to make dinner. I usually do the dishes and laundry after dinner.

JOE: Do you like to make food?

MARIA: Yes! I will make a appointment to take a cooking class at the community college.

JOE: Maybe I will see you there!

MARIA: I hope so!

DIALOGUE

SUE: Joan sit down you are all out of breath. What happened?

JOAN: It's nothing. Don't worry about it. I decided to jog here instead of walking.

SUE: Jog! You're kidding! You ran all the way to the park?

JOAN: Yeah. I have decided to get in shape, so I do some kind of exercise everyday. Let's eat. I am starving.

SUE: I put a blanket on the ground for us. I made a thermos of coffee. I also made us sandwiches. When I get home, I will do the laundry.

JOAN: You are so active. With three kids and a part-time job, I never have enough time to do all my chores around my house.

SUE: Let's talk about something else, not what we have to do all day!

JOAN: That is a beautiful sweater. Did you make it?

SUE: Yes, I crocheted it last winter. I made these earrings to go with it. I have decided to make jewelry to sell. We need the money.

JOAN: With your talent, you will make money very quickly!
