

LOST AND FOUND in the London Underground.

Look at the picture and think: What is the meaning of the phrase “Lost and found”?

Is there a lost and found office in the public transportation department of your city?

- 1) Listen and complete the chart. <http://www.podcastsinenglish.com/pages/level1.shtml> (Podcast #83/Lost and Found))

Number of staff	Number of items lost on the public transport	Number of items returned to people everyday	Number of bags	Number of books	Type of items	Charge you pay to recover your property.
						From To

- 2) Answer the questions.

How is the office?

What unusual things do people lose in the underground?

What happens if you do not claim your objects?

- 3) Imagine you are lost something very valuable for you (you choose the item). Write an email asking for it and giving details as to where you lost it, how it is, when you lost it, etc.

