

40 Hour Week

by

Alabama

There are people in this country, who work hard every day.

Not for fame or fortune do they strive.

But the fruits of their labor are worth more than their pay.
And it's time a few of them were recognized...

Hello Detroit Auto Worker

Let me thank you for your time.

You work a 40 hour week
for a living,

just to send it on down the line.

Hello Pittsburgh

Steel Mill Worker

Let me thank you for your time.

You work a 40 hour week
for a living,

just to send it on down the line.

This is for the one who swings
the hammer,

driving home the nails.

For the one behind the counter,

ringing up the sales

For the one who fights the fire,

The one who brings the mail

For everyone who works
behind the scenes...

You can see them every morning,

in the factories

and the fields

in the city streets

and the quiet country towns

Working together
like spokes inside a wheel,

they keep this country turning around.

Hello Kansas

Wheat Field Farmer,

let me thank you for your time.
You work a 40 hour week for a living,
just to send it on down the line.

Hello West Virginia
Coal Miner,

let me thank you for your time.

You work a 40 hour week for a living,

just to send it on down the line.

This is for the one who drives the big rigs...

up and down the road.

For the one out in the warehouse,

bringing in the load.

For the waitress,

the mechanic,

the policeman on patrol,

For everyone who works
behind the scenes,
with a spirit you can't replace with no
machine...

Hello America!

Let Me Thank You for Your Time.

Jodie Isenhour, 2002