

24 Jobs

"I don't get out of bed for less than $10,000 a day"

— Linda Evangelista

Mixed up vocabulary

traenei - (n) a person who is learning how to do a job

jbo iettrinwv - (n) you usually have one of these before you get a job

hamun rrueossce - (n) the department which recruits staff

sefl eymdleop - (adj) if you work for yourself

fdrei - (v) to lose your job because you did something wrong

unlodempye - (adj) to be without work craree - (n) a profession that you are in for a long time and make progress in

Idioms and collocations

It's a _____ job but someone's got to do it

The best thing about being a teacher is I get real job _____ from helping my students.

Why are you still working in the supermarket doing that _____ end job?

Rex, this cake you made isn't bad but don't give up the _____ job.

I got the _____ from my last job, it was the best thing that ever happened to me.

satisfaction dirty sack dead day

Grammar bit

I've been working at PayMate.com for three years and I've been in the Human Resources department for six months. Before I came here, I worked for an insurance company. I've worked for seven different companies in my life so far.

24 Jobs

What was your first job?	What would be your dream job?
What's the worst job you've had?	What do you like about your job?
How will your job change in the future?	Do you know anyone with an interesting or unusual job?
If you won a lot of money, would you give up work?	How long have you had your current job?
What kind of job would you hate to have?	What jobs did your parents have?