Discover St Patrick

Did you know that St Patrick, the patron Saint of Ireland was not Irish, and his name was not Patrick ?

St Patrick's real name was Maewyn Succat. He was born around 385 AD, at the end of the Roman Empire, probably in Northern England or in Wales. When he was 16, he was captured by Irish pirates and sold as a slave to an Irish farmer. He spent 6 years in captivity, where he worked as a shepherd and became more and more religious.

One day, he had a vision and heard a voice telling him to leave Ireland. So, he escaped from the farm and went to Gaul (France) where he became a priest and the Pope gave him the name Patricius (Patrick).

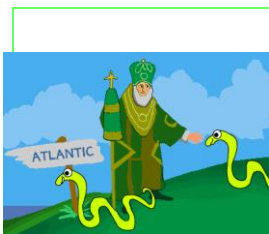

The Irish were not Christians. Sixteen years later, Patrick returned to Ireland to convert the population to Christianity. An important idea of Christianity is that there are three parts of God in one : the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. So, Patrick used the shamrock: one plant with three leaves, to help people understand this.

Legend says that he chased all the snakes from Ireland because there are no snakes in Ireland. How did he do that ? He asked them to jump into the sea and they did !

He died in Downpatrick, Ireland, On March 17th, 461AD.

To honour their Saint, the Irish parade and wear green, the colour of Ireland, the Emerald Isle.

St Patrick's Day is also celebrated in the USA and other countries because a lot of Irish people emigrated to these countries a long time ago.
