

Mother's Day Reading Comprehension

Mother's Day is observed on the second Sunday of May. It is a day to honor, appreciate, and remember all mothers.

Anna Jarvis is the founder of Mother's Day. In 1907, she began a campaign for a nationwide observance of Mother's Day. In 1915, President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed Mother's Day an annual national observance.

Anna Jarvis also started the tradition of wearing a carnation on Mother's Day. Many people still wear carnations today. If a person wears a colored carnation, it means that his or her mother is still living. A white carnation means that the person's mother is dead.

Other traditions of Mother's Day include sending flowers and cards, giving gifts, and preparing breakfast-in-bed for mom.

Mother's Day Reading Comprehension Questions:

1. When is Mother's Day observed?
2. Who is the founder of Mother's Day?
3. When was Mother's Day proclaimed as a national annual observance?
4. What does a white carnation mean?
5. What does a colored carnation mean?
6. What are some of the traditions of Mother's Day?