Top ‘o the morning’ to you! My name is Niamh (pronounced Neev). While I am not Irish, my name is. I am a gray shorthair female. I am just a few months away from turning two years old. Like some kitty cats my age, I love to play with toys. While I might enjoy batting around a toy mouse, I cannot live in a home with dogs of the real variety. That would be way too scary! If you are a cat person who loves dangling feather thingies and the smell of catnip-filled stuffies, I think we could make a great team. Feel free to stop by and meet me to see what you think. I hope to see you soon!
