

W. Scott Miller, III
Executive Director
Western Power Trading Forum

The Western Power Trading Forum (WPTF) is a broad-based organization with over 80-member companies, dedicated to encouraging competition in Western states electric markets. Scott comes to this position from a background that has been dedicated to competitive electric and natural gas markets.

Prior to coming to WPTF in 2018, Scott was the Senior Market Advisor in the Policy Office at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) from 2008-2017. He was responsible for advising the Commission and staff on electric and natural gas markets.

- Scott worked as Vice President for Regulatory Affairs at Constellation Energy from 2006-2008.
- From 2002-2006 Scott was Executive Director for Market Development at PJM and later in charge of relations with PJM's 13 states.
- From 2000-2002 Scott was Executive Director of the Energy Markets Division at FERC where he oversaw the FERC staff's first investigation into the Western Energy Crisis in 2000. Scott also directed staff investigation into the Cost-Benefit Study on participation in RTOs.
- Scott worked for US Generating Company and its successor, PG&E National Energy Group from 1994-2000, first as Assistant to the President & CEO and later as Director of Market Policy where he coordinated NEG policy on ISO and RTO formation across the US.

Scott began his career in Foreign Policy and National Security working at the US Department of State on Arms Control and Security Assistance. Scott has a BA in History from Columbia University and an MA in Security Policy Studies from George Washington University.

Jesus Arredondo
Principal and Founder
Advantage Consulting

Jesus has earned graduate degrees from the University of California, Davis, the University of Miami (FL), and the University of California, Los Angeles. Jesus also served 10 years in the United States Army and was honorably discharged in 1996.

Jesus is the principal and founder of Advantage Government Consulting LLC and has over 19 years of experience in media and government relations, including concentrated experience in energy policy. Prior to launching Advantage Consulting, Jesus worked as a senior advisor for two major public relations firms in the United States and Mexico. Jesus also served as a policy advisor to a major California transmission project, principal advisor on an education effort in California concerning natural gas and on a national education campaign concerning the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's push for standard market design.

Before launching Advantage Consulting, Jesus served five years as Director of Regulatory and Government Affairs for a fortune 500 independent power producer and two years at the California Power Exchange, where he served as Director of Corporate Communications.